P. Johnson, Father of Girls Attending School Here, Reported to Be One of Victims of Tragedy At First of Week

Five men were killed instantly and one man died from injuries sustained when a rock and dirt slide struck a bunkhouse at the Bonanza mine at Anyox last Monday and Neither Ketchikan or Prince Rupert completely demolished it. Belated word of the tragedy was received by the provincial police here late yesterday afternoon from Constable Sam Service of Anyox. Details of the accident are meagre. T. J. Shenton, inspector of mines, at present in GYRO CLUB Stewart, will investigate the cirowned by the Granby Consolidated APPROVES Mining, Smelting & Power Co. which operates the Bonanza mine
