TALK OF WAR

It is to be supposed that for many years to come there will be talk of war. Also at times there will be fear of war. Possibly war may come although it is not very likely. While the return of Italy to something of her old prestige and power under Mussolini is a disturbing factor, the spread of Communism among the more ignorant and oppressed nations is a much more disturbing factor. Neither of these makes world war inevitable nor even very likely. The nations of the world are tired of war and war talk. The common people are coming to see the futility of trying to force their will on the rest of the world by force of arms and every year that passes makes a world war less likely.

What another generation may do after the last war is forgotten, no one can prophesy. The enthusiasms and horrors of the Great War cannot be repeated while the old soldiers are alive or while the bereaved parents of the lost still remember.

The hope for the future is that the world is becoming more civilized, that people are becoming better educated and less inclined to be led by the nose than ever before. The mass mind is opposed to war and it will be difficult to rouse the people to the necessary blind enthusiasm for it as has been done in the past.

AN IMPORTANT EVENT

The connecting of Prince Rupert with the Falls River power plant making available another 6,000 horsepower with 25,000 horsepower yet to come will be one of the greatest events in the history of Prince Rupert. It means that we can now talk to those interested in establishing industries with some hope of success. Power was the first necessity and we are about to have it. Doubtless Prince Rupert people will unite as one in an effort to properly celebrate the auspicious occasion.

PAIN
so easily relieved
How to treat
Headaches
Neuralgia
Neuritis
or check a Cold

WHY are some women so patient with pain? Shopping with a head that throbs. Working when they ache all over. Sometimes it's hours before they take Aspirin and get relief! Most men take these tablets the moment that some sudden ache or pain threatens their comfort and so should you. Aspirin is perfectly harmless; it cannot depress the heart. The tablets stamped Bayer are always genuine Aspirin; always the same, always safe. So it isn't sensible to suffer with a headache, a cold, neuralgic pains, or anything else that these tablets relieve almost as soon as swallowed. Buy by the bottle and save money. Any drugstore has the 100-tablet size.

Man in the Moon

Now that the dreary days are here, And winter's coming soon, We'll have a game of indoor golf Beneath a painted moon.

First Stranger (at the party): "Very dull, isn't it?"
Second: "Yes, very dull."
"Let's go home."
"I can't, I'm the host."

Asked to pray for warm weather so that her grandmother's rheumatism might pass away, a six-year old girl knelt and said:
"Oh, Lord, please make it hot for grandma."

Angry Motorist: "Hey, some of you people walk along as if you owned the streets."
Irate Citizen: "Yes, and some of you motorists drive as if you owned the car."

She: "You remind me of the sea."
He: "Wild, romantic, relentless."
She: "No, you just make me sick."

Englishman (to shopman): "I say, aw, could you take that yellow tie with the pink spots out of the window for me?"
Shopman: "Certainly, sir. Pleas-ed to take anything out of the window any time, sir."

Englishman: "Thanks, awfully. The beastly thing bothers me every time I pass. Good morning."

BOOM ON IN PEACE RIVER

Minister of Lands Says District Is Having Greatest Colonization Era in Its History

The Peace River district of British Columbia is in the middle of the greatest colonization era which this province has known in modern times, according to Hon. F. P. Burden, minister of lands, on his return to Victoria recently from a trip north.

"The population of the Peace River country, I should say after a tour through most of it, has tripled in two years," said Mr. Burden, who probably knows the north better than any member of the Legislature. "I was amazed at the number of people who have poured in this year from all over America. Most of the new settlers have cleared land for themselves during the summer, but as they have no money in most cases, they have created quite a problem for us. Work will have to be provided for them during the winter until they can get a crop next year. They are a fine type of people, and I did not hear one word of complaint from any of them."

Aids Farmers
The whole economic position of a large part of the Peace River country will be altered by the present extension of the Alberta Government's railway westward by the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways, Mr. Burden said. He had been informed officially, he stated, that this extension would reach the settlement at Dawson by December. Work is proceeding night and day.

"This," said Mr. Burden, "will give the farmers a return of 10 to 15 cents more a bushel on their grain, as it will save them shipping it a long distance east to the present head of steel. Of course, even then, they will get very small prices, but their yield is so amazingly large that they will make reasonable returns, and they are exceedingly optimistic."

Pacific Outlet
The present extension, however, is only a temporary expedient, and the real need is a Pacific rail outlet. Everywhere the people are clamoring for this link, the construction of which would do wonders for this fine country.

The crops of the Peace River country this year are extraordinary, the minister said. "I never saw such yields," he declared, "and they appear almost universal. While I was there a farmer threshed 60 bushels to the acre of No. 2 Northern, and his fields did not appear to me to be carrying more grain than those of his neighbors all around him."

Mr. Burden conferred in Prince George with Major C. R. Crysdale, engineer in charge of the Pacific Great Eastern resources survey in the Peace River block. This work will shortly be completed, Mr. Burden said. It is planned to withdraw survey parties from the field about October 10. Major Crysdale arrived here with Mr. Burden, and is opening offices, where his staff will compile the data gathered by the survey during the winter.

and rancher, is in the Francois Lake Hospital suffering from painful burns sustained when a gas lamp exploded in his shack in the Whitetail country. Following the explosion of the lamp, a quantity of percussion caps blew up and Seel, already burned, was hurled twenty feet by the explosion. After sustaining the burns, Mr. Seel rowed all night for a distance of nine miles to his home down Ootsa Lake which he reached in a semi-delirious condition.

Major and Mrs. Robert Lowe are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter last Sunday at their residence.

Make dresses bright as new!

DIAMOND DYES are easy to use; go on smoothly and evenly; make dresses, drapes, lingerie look NEW. Never a trace of that re-dyed look when Diamond Dyes are used. Just true, even, new colors that hold their own through the hardest wear and washing. Diamond Dyes owe their superiority to the abundance of pure anilines they contain. Cost more to make? Surely. But you pay no more for them. All dealers—15c.

Ancient Wars Are Commemorated

Tablet Unveiled at Annapolis in Memory of New England Raids Against Port Royal

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL, N.S., Sept. 27.—Another handsome tablet was added recently to the collection at Fort Anne Park, when Major Howard Pell, Governor General of the General Society of Colonial Wars in the United States, unveiled and formally presented one, commemorating two successful expeditions against Port Royal from New England. The tablet is of bronze, bearing in relief, the reproduction of the Seal and Badge of the Society, the arms of Nova Scotia, and the Seals of Contributing State Societies—Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. The inscription, also in relief, is as follows: "1654-1710. In commemoration of the captures of Port Royal by New England expeditions under Maj. Robert Sedgewick, 1654, and Col. Francis Nicholson, 1710. In this second expedition Colonel Samuel Vetch was Adjutant General. There were 31 transports, four ships of 60 guns each, two of 40 guns, one of 36 guns and two bomb galleys. The land forces were one regiment of marines, Col. Robert Reading, two regiments from Massachusetts under Col. Sir Charles Hobby and Col. William Taylor, Col. Shadrock Walton's New Hampshire Regiment, The Grenadiers were led by Captain Paul Mascarene. Erected A. D. 1930 by the General Society of Colonial Wars in the United States."

The unveiling took place at the Town Hall. Lieutenant - Governor Tory was unable to attend and sent regrets, and the Provincial Government was represented by Hon. Dr. G. H. Murphy of Halifax. The Nova Scotia Historical Society was represented by Archdeacon Vroom; Mount Allison University by Rev. J. G. Hoekin; Acadia University by Dr. J. H. MacDonald; Historical Association by the vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Thompson and Port Anne Chapter, I. O. O. E. by the Regent, Mrs. W. R. Smith. Mrs.

F. A. Richardson of Cambridge, translator of Les Carbot's drama, and promoter of the scheme to restore Champlain's Habitation, was also present, and Major Pell was accompanied by members of the different societies.

The Union Jack and Stars and Stripes were used to drape the platform and the one used for the unveiling was a "Union Flag" under which the Colonial Troops served. L. M. Fortier, Superintendent of Fort Anne Park, thanked the Society, as represented by Major Pell, for their valuable gift. Major Pell then took charge of the meeting and in his remarks, stated that the bronze used in the tablet was part of an old cannon, taken from Louisburg Harbor 35 years ago. He then called on Prof. Hamlin, representing the State of Connecticut; Mr. Sharpe, representing Rhode Island; Col. Louis Chene, representing New Hampshire, and Hon. Dr. Murphy and Ven. Archdeacon Vroom, who each gave addresses.

Do You Play Bridge ??

THE chap who overbids his hand always loses in the long run. No person can continually bid what he hasn't got and make it.

Business in one way is something like a game of bridge . . . with merchants and manufacturers playing for your patronage. You want furniture and breakfast foods, books and clothes, radios, cigarettes and toys, groceries, fruits, vegetables, etc.—they want to sell you theirs. They bid with advertising.

The merchant who advertises an unworthy product can't win. He is simply inducing more people to find out in a shorter time how poor it is. He is overbidding his hand, and is bound to get set. Losing is too costly . . . depend upon it, products that are advertised must be good!

The advertisements in this newspaper are guides to the finest merchandise of every sort, merchandise carefully and faithfully made, of certain, honest value. You can trust the manufacturers who write them.

It pays to read the advertisements. They are bids backed by products that can compete in the open . . . and win.
