MOVING FOR PEACE

(Vancouver Sun)

The voices of the peace parley delegates that came over the air to the listening world this morning were the voices of the liberal-minded people of the earth. The meeting of these delegates in London today is not so much a meeting to devise disarmament machinery, as a broad gesture of impatience with those broken-down modes of thought that lead to war.

With the possible exception of Italy, all nations taking BURNS LAKE part in this conference are eminently Liberal in politics BURNS LAKE and in attitude. And Italy, reactionary though her political philosophy may be, is at present electrified into progressive thinking by the personality of Mussolini.

The very presence of a man like Ramsay Macdonald at Tournament of Ominica Ski Club City Championship Tourney Well Johnny Cuthbert in the ring. this conference, in the role of British premier, is indicative of the potency of the new Liberalism. It is a long distance from a cottage in Lossiemouth to the council chamber of the world's great powers. And the same thing that brought Ramsay Macdonald to power, brought about this present sweeping gesture of peace.

It is a great humanization of ideas, a great new honest striving towards a fair-dealing that are setting the twentieth century apart from all other centuries as a pe- trom's ranch to Burns Lake, in the having qualified for the final. riod dedicated to progress, not only by the everpresent Ominica Ski Club's tournament Games played last night resulted as grace of God, but by the newly-acquired grace of man.

Fifty years ago when a statesman went to a foreign country to negotiate a treaty, he left with specific instructions from his sovereign. Stimson and Ralston left North America with instructions from no sovereign but with the petitioned will of the people of this continent for peace.

This is the age of Liberalism. It is an age within which Liberal nations will survive and conservative, imperialistic the Viking Club, who crushed his shelford Darton beat Mrs. M. H. and militaristic nations will decay.

N ALERT newsboy, on a day when news was dull and sales were few, turned to the advertising pages for inspiration.

"Read about the big reduction sale," he shouted. "Fine quality tea sets at $3.50 and $4. Fancy chinaware sacrificed."

His stock of papers was sold out very quickly,

The case is, of course, exceptional. But it points to the fact that advertising is news-and important news. It is the news of daily life, the news that comes closest to you and those about you. It is news of the furniture you sit in, the books you read, the bonds you buy, the automobile you use, the flashlight, talking machine and food product that give you satisfaction. News that concerns you more vitally than anything else you read. News that is essential to you, because whether you purchase a piano or a pin, you want the best your money can buy.

-and you can always be sure you are getting the newest and best when you read the advertisements.

The advertisements contain pocketbook news—and that's important!
