In the National League Pittsburgh went 14 innings before defeating Philadelphia and it took Chicago 11 innings to gain the victory over Brooklyn.

TRIBUTE TO SPORTSMEN IN ENGLAND

With the recent dissatisfaction with refereeing over the results of the Sharkey-Schmeling fight and the Sharkey-Scott fight where decisions were won and lost on fouls it is reassuring to read the tribute paid by W. L. Stribling, father of "Young" Stribling, who knocked out Phil Scott in London the other week.

"I have never met a finer set of sportsmen than those of England," he said before his departure. "They gave us a clean break all through. Although the fight was under British control, on British soil and against the British champion, nothing could have exceeded the fairness with which we were treated during the Scott fight. The referee, Sam Russell, is the best man with the best knowledge of the game I have ever seen, and if my boy fights for the world championship he will be happy if the third man in the ring is Sam Russell."

BOXING BOUT IS ARRANGED

Billy Bagshaw and Gil Woods to Clash Soon

Interest in the boxing match between Gil Woods of Vancouver and Billy Bagshaw, the local star is steadily increasing. G. L. Cochrane, a visitor from Vancouver, called at the office here to deposit his check for $100 that Woods will win his fight against Bagshaw.

We understand that the money will be covered forthwith.

Bagshaw is in good shape and is training even more seriously now, and with the match only nine days distant will be in A-1 shape to take on Woods.

Sport Chat

Much interest is being taken in the forthcoming baseball series to be played during fair week between local players and the Vancouver Athletic Club team, leaders in the Senior City League of the southern metropolis. It is to be hoped the weather holds fine for the games as the local association will have to raise a big gate to meet expenses. The local team has showed up exceedingly well this season against outside teams, taking Ketchikan into camp in the four games they have played by an easy margin. When the American destroyers were in port last month, it was expected that the Gobs would be able to put it over on the locals, but Prince Rupert won the first game handily and were unfortunate in losing the second game which went an extra inning. The boys should put up some stiff opposition against the southerners, and if they can bat the way they have been during their other series, the games should be closely contested.

It is expected that Bill Lambie, who has been pitching fine ball for the Native Sons this summer, will start in the first game. As he plays in the outfield when not on the mound, it would give him a better chance if he pitched the first contest rather than play outfield and then come in to pitch the second or third game. Herman Loblick is a sure starter in one of the games, while it is thought Nick Chenoski will be the other twirler. With Somerville away, the catching department is one of the weakest points on the team. Jack Nelson although developing nicely, is lacking in experience, while McKeown is a little slow on his throw to second. Downie, who has been playing first base for Centrals, will probably do the receiving. Bill Mitchell will be stationed at first as in the other series. Bill Harold, who plays third for the Elks in the City League, and who handled second in the games against the sailors, is liable to play there again. Benny Wendle is the choice for shortstop, while Stan Moran, if he is able to play, will probably cover third.

In the outfield, George Arseneau will be seen in his usual place in left field. Lambie will play centre when he is not doing duty on the mound. Skinner or Chenoski will probably be in right field, with the possibility that Farquhar will play that garden. There will be plenty of relief players to fill in who will not weaken the team to any extent. George Mitchell has been playing a steady game at short for the Elks while Smith, who has been hitting nicely is a relief player for second base. Alex Mitchell and George Howe, who is leading the league at batting, are both good outfielders and can play in any field.

Hurdling is a form of athletics that is not seen in the local sports meetings. It is one of the most pleasing races to watch. It is, however, an obstacle race with the runners going as hard as possible between the hurdles and jumping over them as they are met. It is a question of taking the hurdle in the stride and pictures of Earl Thomson, the Canadian who holds the world's record, show that from the start of a race to the end of it, his head was practically the same height from the ground.

At the Empire Games at Hamilton, England will be represented by Lord Burghley, D. O. Finlay, Royal Air Force, F. R. Gaby, Polytechnic Harriers, R. St. G. Harper, in the 120 yard hurdles, and by Lord Burghley, Dr. M. L. Neame, W. G. Tatham and R. Leigh Wood in the 440 yard hurdles.

Lord Burghley is the Olympic hurdle champion of 1928 and the British champion at both 120 yards and 440 yards in the amateur championships this year. He holds the British native record of 14 4-5 seconds for the 120 yards and the 440 yards record with 53 4-5 seconds. Probably his greatest asset is his fighting spirit, his determination being the subject of comment by competitors and spectators of all countries. Physically he is not at all of the ordinary and would not be picked out as in any way likely to be one of the greatest hurdlers of the age.

GAME POSTPONED

The scheduled baseball game between Elks and Centrals in the City Baseball League last evening was postponed on account of a heavy rain and wind storm that made playing impossible.

HIGH JUMP AT EMPIRE GAMES SOON

Exciting Contests Expected When Men Meet at Hamilton

One of the most exciting events to watch in any athletic competition is the high jump. One has only to watch the spectators at these contests to see what a thrill they get out of the effort of the contestants, the short quick run, the lift, the suspense, both literal and mental, as the jumper reaches his highest and then the clearance or the fall of the bar.

At Hamilton this event promises to be keenly fought out. Canada's three representatives are Jack Portland, Collingwood A. C., D. A. McNaughton, Vancouver A. C., and G. Smallcombe, Toronto West Y. M. C. A. At Toronto last Saturday this event was won with a jump of six feet. This is 3 3/4 inches below the Canadian record. McNaughton is credited with doing 6 feet 2 inches. But this is not likely to be quite good enough to win at Hamilton.

England has sent three jumpers of quality. C. E. S. Gordon of the Achilles Club, London, is the present champion. He cleared 6 feet 3 3/4 inches against the Princeton and Cornell Universities last month. He was also a representative in the last Olympic games where the jump was won by an American entrant, Robert King, with 6 feet 4 3/4 inches. Another English entrant is G. Turner of the Earlstown Viaduct Club. He was second in the English championships this year. He is credited with having done 6 feet 5 inches on one occasion. The third serious competition will come from E. Bradbrooke who did 6 feet 2 inches in the triangle competition with Scotland and Ireland this year.

Altogether those who are privileged to see the Empire Sports will have every opportunity of seeing some splendid high jumping with Canada having a fair chance of producing a winner.

Pump Takes Ride North In Plane From Edmonton

Shades of the Village Blacksmith, the village pump's gone air-minded! Brown and Alcock flew across the Atlantic and Kingsford-Smith around the world, but it remained for C. H. "Punch" Dickens, famous pilot of the Western Canada Airways, to take the village pump for an aerial joy-ride, says an Edmonton paper. This Lindbergh of all pumps, painted green as many respectable pumps are, reposes at present, along with all the accoutrements necessary and desirable to pumps, including a handle, in the Western Canada Airways offices here. On Monday it will be hurtling northward in the Super-Universal Fokker monoplane piloted by "Punch" on his northern flight to Fort Resolution. It's a substantial pump and not the kind one would normally expect to take up aviation. There is just a possibility that it's not even an air-minded pump, but a mining camp on Great Slave Lake needs water and miners must be served... so the pump flies northward Monday.

A Daily News want-ad will bring results.
