A NEW PROCESS

TREATED

CANADA'S most popular blended cigarette now flooded with sunshine ... cool ... smooth ... fragrant. Made from the original choice selected tobaccos irradiated by a battery of giant sun lamps . . . bathed in powerful ultra-violet rays.

Here is another triumph for Buckingham ... All the original richness ot the blended leaf is here in this mild, mellow, sun-treated cigarette. The famous Buckingham flavor takes on a new meaning ... a new thrill comes with every puff. Buckingham Cigarettes ... sun-treated ... are mellow as a day in June . . . fine-tasting as old wine.

Hawkin Brekke supported the groom and Albert Pedersen and Raymond Livelton acted as ushers. For the reception which was attended by over 200 guests, the hall was decorated by a green dome covered with pink and white chrysanthemums and matching streamers. Assisting the bridal party in receiving under an arch of greenery and white wedding bells were Mrs. B. F. Jacobsen and Mrs. E. Gordon, the former wearing black flat crepe trimmed with gold radium lace and the latter in navy crepe with beige georgette at wrist and neck. The bride's table was centred with a four-tier wedidng cake and vases of pink and white roses. A dance was held after the reception.

After a short honeymoon at Stewi Hunting Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will reside in Lower Bella Coola.

FIRST THE BLEND

The manufacturers of Buckinghams originated the famous Buckingham Blend - a secret process which employs selected leaf, matured in wood, heat-treated and airconditioned to preserve the fine fragrance and mild aroma.

THEN THE PACKING

Buckinghams are packed by the famous Arenco machines which package Buckinghams at the rate of 1,000,000 per machine, per day. The freshness of Buckinghams is preserved by using the exclusive and patented sealed package.
