WHICH CANDIDATE?

Prince Rupert seems to be pretty evenly divided in its support of the two candidates for the federal house, J. C. Brady, who was the representative for Skeena in the last parliament, and Olof Hanson, who has been selected as a candidate to support the present government. Under these conditions no matter which side a newspaper takes it is going against the opinions of about half the population.

It seems likely that the Mackenzie King Government will be returned to power and in view of that fact it would seem the path of wisdom for Prince Rupert to send a government supporter, provided it does not go against the best interests of the community in other respects.

J. C. Brady was a good representative of the Conservative party at Ottawa. He brought Prince Rupert considerable publicity for he spoke on many occasions in the House of Commons and also delivered addresses in various parts of the country. The difficulty was that he was against the government and on every important occasion voted against them and very often spoke against them. That is a matter of record. If then Prince Rupert wishes to send to wind, 54. Ottawa a man who will be a faithful adherent of the Conservative party and will obey the party whip whenever it cracks, then Brady is the man to select. He will plead Prince Rupert's cause but he will do so always under the shadow of the opposition instead of as one who has the confidence of the government. We do not think Mr. Brady will take any exception to that. At any rate, the records show that seldom if ever did he record a vote other than with Hon. R. B. Bennett and against Premier Mackenzie King and his party, who at present hold the reins of power at Ottawa. In voting for Mr. Brady, then, we know exactly what to expect. He goes to Ottawa for the express purpose of trying to turn out the Mackenzie King Government and in First United Church. Business replacing it by a government headed by R. B. Bennett, the salaried leader of the opposition of which Mr. Brady is a Rev. John H. Hanson, the presimember.

THE ALTERNATIVE

The alternative is to choose Olof Hanson, avowed sup-tion, who has been on a visit to porter of Mackenzie King, who has already spent consid- the pilchard plants on the west erable time at Ottawa at his own expense and has already coast of Vancouver Island, return-done valuable work there for Prince Rupert.
