London Times Gratified at Good Reception Canadian Budget Is Receiving

LONDON, May 14:-"There seems little doubt that, on the whole, the new tariff, whatever may be said of other features of the budget, has had a good reception," said the London Times yesterday in commenting upon the Canadian political situation.

"One gratifying feature of the discussion on the budget is that, only in isolated instances, has there been any objection to the great extension of the British preference."

Proposal of Viscount Lymington to Accord Dominion Preference

Reciprocation For Favorable Tariff Discussed in British House-Might Not Be Practicable Scheme

LONDON, May 14:-The British government should extend subsidies to the development of civil aviation in Canada it was declared in the House of Commons yesterday by Viscount Lymington, Conservative member. "Canada has increased enormously its preference to us under its new tariff," he said, "and, while we are debarred from according the Dominion a similar degree of preference, there is nothing to prevent our subsidizing civil air services throughout Canada."

Under-secretary for Air Montague remarked that Canada had its own aircraft developments and it would not be easy to impose British methods or even subsidies upon the Dominion.
