LOW PRICES ATTRACTIVE

The low prices now being charged in Prince Rupert stores for all kinds of merchandise make this city particularly attractive as a shopping centre. This will doubtless have an effect on the fall fair as many people will come to the city to do some business as well as to take in the big annual event.

Visitors to the city from the south recently have been struck with the low prices of men's wear as compared with other cities. It is declared that no such values are seen in the big cities where rents are high and all other costs of doing business equally heavy.

For the fair there will be special excursion rates on the railway as far east as Prince George and this too should prove an attraction.

TRADE WITH ORIENT

It was stated at the Chamber of Commerce dinner Monday night that the wheat trade with the Orient was likely to increase soon and that officials of the Wheat Pool were looking for increased business through Prince Rupert. That is good news. It seems as if all eyes are beginning to focus occasionally on Prince Rupert and that the city is bound to get some good from the publicity among those in a position to help. One of the visitors who spoke at the dinner was a director of two milling companies and he was in a position to know better than anyone in regard to the future of the business.

FIRST VISIT HERE

Several of the prominent Vancouver and Winnipeg men who have been here this week have been making their first visits to the city. Some of them were much pleased with what they saw here and all were keen to express themselves in regard to the future of the port.

Apparently outsiders see great things for Prince Rupert and most of the people who live here are beginning to think some of the prophecies are true. The city is undoubtedly on the up-grade and with all the united effort we can muster we should succeed.

In this connection we suggest to politicians on both sides that they carry on in such a way that we can all live together after the election not only in amity but in unity after the campaign is over.

WILL BE RETURNED

Recent visitors to Prince Rupert all seem agreed that the Mackenzie King Government will be returned to power on the twenty-eighth and that it will have a working majority in Parliament. In view of that, Prince Rupert can best serve her own interests by adding one to that majority and at the same time elect a man well suited to represent the huge district. Olof Hanson is the man. We believe he will be the choice of the people of Skeena riding.

Plane Skagway Visits Stewart

Washington-Airways Machine Carried Passengers From Hyder to Ketchikan

STEWART, July 16:—About 11 o'clock Monday morning residents of the district were startled by the appearance of a seaplane which suddenly appeared out of a grey sky did a few stunt turns and side-slips, and finally came to rest on the water opposite the Hyder dock. The plane was the Skagway, owned and operated by the Alaska-Washington Airways, with Robin O'Ranahan as pilot and Frank Wadman as mechanic and had flown over from Ketchikan.

No passengers were brought here, but on the return trip to Ketchikan the plane carried Dr. W. E. Peterson, Ketchikan dentist; Jas. Freeburn, mining engineer; and Miss Frances Sandford, daughter of the editor of the Hyder Herald.

Man in the Moon

There are two kinds of people who go up in the air, aviators and politicians.

There was a car wreck the other day. The nut at the wheel was too tight.

There was a peal of thunder last Sunday and it seems that a lot of local people thought it was Mr Bennett blasting his way through o foreign markets.

Ocean Falls Liberals are sending money to Prince Rupert to bet on Hanson because there are no takers in the paper town. Pretty soon the local market for the same will be completely saturated.

Some days Prince Rupert is so quiet the only stirring event is the wetting of the afternoon tea.

There are several people around town whose sins never find them out and whose creditors never find them in.

"Dorothy," said her mother, "you have disobeyed me by racing around and making all sorts of noise. For that you shan't have that piece of candy I was saving for you."

A few minutes later, when father came in, he was surprised to find Dorothy huddled in a corner.

"What's the matter, little one?" he demanded.

"I've been fined for speeding," sobbed Dorothy.

Mary had a little lamb,

A regular go-getter,

But it wandered into the stock market

And now it needs a sweater.

WELL KNOWN PHYSICIANS WILL MEET

Virtually Every Portion of Empire to be Represented at Winnipeg in August

WINNIPEG, July 16—Impressive names are listed on the early scroll of members who will attend the 98th annual meeting of members who will attend the 98th annual meeting of the British Medical Association, to be held in Winnipeg in late August. Virtually every portion of the Empire will contribute to the galaxy of talent, though England is most generous in its representation.

Among those who will be present at the session is Sir Farquhar Buzzard, Bart., K.C.V.O., M.D., F.R.C.P., physician extraordinary to King George, Sir Farquhar was especially prominent during his Majesty's illness some 18 months ago. He is regius professor of physics at Oxford.

Lady Barrett, C. H., M.D., M.S., a distinguished figure in obstetrics as well as in the social world, has expressed intention of coming to the meeting at Winnipeg, she holds the eminent position of consulting obstetric surgeon at the Royal Free Hospital, London.

Distinguished in medico-political work of the British Medical Association is Dr. H. B. Brackenbury present chairman of the council. His knowledge of the operation of various Insurance Acts is regarded as unrivalled. Sir Hubert Bond, K. C.B., M.D., F. R.C.P., who is commissioner of the board of control is prominent for his treatment of mental disorders. At Middlesex Hospital, London, he is emeritus in psychiatry.

In Dr. and Mrs. N. Bishop Harman, the sessions will find two of the best-known members of the association. Dr. Harman, who is treasurer of the body, is ophthalmic surgeon at West London Hospital. His wife, also a member of the profession, is daughter of Arthur Chamberlain of Birmingham.

Lord Moynihan of Leeds, distinguished surgeon from the Leeds School, is another distinguished physician who will attend. President of the Royal College of Surgeons, England, and president of the section of surgery of the 1930 B.M.A. meeting, his appearance will be looked for with marked attention.

The meeting will be the third in Canada for Dr. Robert Hutchison, physician to the London Hospital. Acknowledged authority dietetics and pediatrics. Dr. Hutchison was present as a section officer at the 1897 and 1906 gatherings, the only other occasions on which the British body has met in Canada.

Sir Squire Sprigge, M.D., F.R.C.P., editor of "The Lancet"; Sir P. James Purves Stewart, K.C.M.G., C.B., lecturer in clinical medicine at Westminster Hospital; Sir Richard Luce, K.C.M.G., C.B., M.B., F.R.C.P., member of the central council of the British Medical Association—these are but a few of the outstanding London medical men who will be in attendance.

Among the more prominent Irish doctors who have made reservations for the conference are Sir William Taylor, K.B.E., C.B., regius professor of surgery at Dublin University, and Sir William Wheeler, past president of the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland.

George E. Kidd, Stanley Burke and J. P. D. Malkin of Vancouver and A. T. Williamson of Winnipeg, directors of the B. C. Packers, after an inspection visit to company canneries on the Skeena River, sailed by the Catala yesterday afternoon on their return to Vancouver, accompanied by Richard Gosse, general manager of the association. Dr. Harman, who is
