BEAUTIFUL WOMEN AND PRETTY GOWNS

These were Seen in Profusion at the Daughters of Empire Dance Last Night.

The first really dressy dance of the season was held last night in St. Andrew's Hall under the auspices of the Municipal Chapter of the I. O. D. E. It was not in any sense of the word an exclusive affair, but it was a very pretty and enjoyable event.

A five-piece orchestra under Professor Harvey excited much comment by reason of the high quality of its music, and so many encores were asked that it was nearly half past two when the party broke up. During the supper interval Miss Adams played most acceptably.

The ladies of the chapter are certainly to be congratulated on the excellence of the entertainment, including the supper which was served at midnight. The following were some of the dresses noticed:

Mrs. S. P. McMorde, green satin and georgette with touches of gold lace; Mrs. Wilson Murray, green satin with overdress of black net trimmed with rosebuds; Mrs. C. SPIRIT OF THE PACIFIC
(by Johannes Stephansson)

My mind gently fondles thy bosom all-bright
Where embrace reaches in grandeur unite
With depths, breadths and lengths and a velvet-soft breeze,
Unrivalled by oceans—O queen of the seas!
My heart assuages thy soft trembling trills,
They're echoing sounds of thy breast-beating thrills
And lure into spells entrancing and sweet
Where known and unknown things in borderlands meet.
Thy quietude blends with the bright hope of peace
When forces of evil the world shall release
Thy name is an emblem of all that is best,
Thy shores haunt the care-worn who seek calm and rest.
Enchantress! My soul does abide with thy blue,
Thy lavishing beauty forever is new,
When summits relinquish their sun-crowns of gold,
The silvery moonbeams thy calm waves enfold.
A fair lovely spirit seems to hover near, thee
And hush thy domains into tranquility;
It hallows thy islands, inlets and bays
To quiet and glorious summer-warm days.
