Double Purpose to Aid Conservation and Industry, Howe Says; Conference Today in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Jan. 6.—With the double purpose of onservation and aiding the great fish processing industry of British Columbia, the provincial government, in assuming control, will restrict cannery and salmon dry saltery licences to those plants operating or licenced in 1928 or 1929, Hon. S. L. Howe, commissioner of fisheries for British Columbia, announced at a joint conference of cannerymen and fishermen at the Court House here this morning. By this far-reaching pol-

White Lunch and Cook During Construction Days

After an illness which had conined him to the Prince Rupert General Hospital since November 13, ete Gozak proprietor of the White Lunch, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Some time ago he underwent an operation from which on account of heart trouble, he failed to rally successfully.

The late Mr. Cozak, who was very well known here, was a native of Galicia and about forty years of age. He had been in Prince Rupert for nearly twenty years, having worked as a cook along the line during construction days of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. For a time he was employed by Ben Self and then in the White Lunch which business he purchased for himself Quebec Women business he purchased for himself about ten years ago.

Deceased is survived by a widow in the Old Country. He had no relatives in this country. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of Hayner Bros. undertakers. Interment will be made under the auspices of the Moose Lodge, of

Vancouver Bandit, Demanding Money, Shot Man and Woman; Both in Serious Condition

VANCOUVER, Jan. 6.—When Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Perrin returned from a dance given by the Nova Scotia Society, of which Mr. Perrin is treasurer, about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, they were met at the garage door by a bandit who demanded money. Knocking Mrs. Perrin down, the bandit then shot Perrin in the side and, when Mrs. Perrin held him by the legs in an effort to prevent him from escaping, he shot her in the back. Both victims are in a serious condition.
