

EGGSLOW IN PRICE

Butter and Flour Also Soft—Little New in Vegetables or Fruits

The little brown hen is working hard these days and egg prices are low, local new laid being offered at 50c. per dozen. There may be another slight drop before long and that will be the minimum.

The butter and flour markets are also soft.

As may be expected at this time of year, there is practically nothing new either in the line of vegetables or fruits outside of a few reasonable lines and specialties disappearing.

Cabbage is very scarce and the price is high.

Storage grapes will soon be off the market and stores will be grapeless until new season's crop appears.
