

Covered With Boils on Arms, Back and Neck

Miss Margaret Higgins, Dymont, Ont., writes:—"I was covered with boils on my arms, face and neck. I used plasters and other remedies with no results. My attention was drawn to Burdock Blood Bitters, so I decided to get a bottle. The results were marvellous, as in no time the boils had completely disappeared, and my skin was clearer and fresher than ever."

UNITED STATES ELECTION

The returns from the United States elections seem to indicate that the country is turning against the party which is in power there. Republicans lost out considerably although not sufficient to put them in a minority.

This election is in line with other elections in other countries which in time of stress have turned against the government, clutching at any straw to try to save themselves from the uncomfortable position in which they have found themselves.

MAY DIVERT P. G. E.

J. W. deB. Farris declared at North Vancouver that it was the known policy of the C. P. R., if it should take over the B. G. E., to divert it to the main line at Ashcroft and not build into North Vancouver as originally planned.

As the Daily News has pointed out before, there is a possibility of the Peace River outlet emerging on to the main line of the C. N. R. at such a point as would make it possible to connect up with the P. G. E. going into Vancouver by way of Ashcroft and the C. P. R. main line. This is not at all certain. It is at best a roundabout route and one that would not commend itself as a main grain outlet but rather as a means of connecting the southern part of the province with the north.

We still maintain that the reasonable policy would be for the two railways to unite on making one northern port for interior shipments and we believe this northern port would be Prince Rupert. That this has been under serious consideration, we know, and there seems to be no good and sufficient reason why this should not be brought about.

MAY BE AN ELECTION

When it was stated in this paper last summer that there would likely be a provincial election next year, the announcement was greeted with smiles or scoffs. Now it is being taken more seriously. It seems very probable that there may be an appeal to the country in the near future. The result of the election yesterday will have an effect on the decision of the government. Other by-elections which are likely to take place will be still more important. If the government feels itself secure and has a real issue to place before the electors it is likely to take a chance on a general election before the end of the year 1931.

POPPY TAG DAY

Editor, Daily News:—

I have frequently been asked questions concerning the poppies and wreaths sold on Poppy Tag Day.

If you will be good enough to allow me the space I would like to give your readers a short explanation.

These poppies and wreaths are manufactured in the Red Cross Workshops, Victoria, B.C., and the making of them means employment for disabled ex-service men throughout the whole year.

They are bought by the local branches of our organization, through our Provincial Commands and any surplus from the sales on Poppy Day is used as a local fund to provide assistance to the needy and distressed in this city and district.

The Victoria Red Cross Workshop was the first and now is the only shop for disabled ex-service men operated by The Red Cross Society in Canada.

Wear a poppy on Tag Day and help keep the shop open.
