Democratic System

We are a democratic people with democratic system of government; to show that while in name we are monarchial in our government, we are not so in reality. Our "Governors" are so called because they do not govern.

The President of the United States with Ministers responsible to him only and also the Governors of the various states are in fact real Governors; they are irremovable (except by impeachment) for their has always been passed as of was superior to and yet not con-cerning legislation; they are called upon to express an opinion, sometimes the decisive opinion on legislation; they make appointments on stood the attacks of natural un- their own responsibility - their power corresponds to, if it does not exceed, the power of George 111, a system we abandoned many years ago and could never re-adopt.
