Pattullo, Liberal leader, passing through here en route to Revelstoke to meet Premier King, said: "A little later on, after the Dominion election is over, I shall have something to say to Dr. Tolmie. I have always looked upon July 1 as a day of general rejoicing when people of all political persuasions could fraternize as a united Canada. The Political Corner

Vol. 1. Saturday, July 5, 1930 No. 21.

The Inconsistent Mr. Brady

Mr. Brady in his speech at Prince Rupert, as reported, said he had obtained more for this riding from Ottawa in the last four years than was ever obtained in any former four years. Those of us who know what Fred Stork secured during his last four years, including the grain elevator, read this with astonishment and amusement.

Surely Mr. Brady credits us with short memories. Why, it was only two years ago that he was denouncing the Liberal Government for starving the District of Skeena because he was an opposition member. He said the Mackenzie King Government was punishing this constituency because it had elected him, a Conservative. And now behold he would have us believe it is the most generous government in the world because it has made more appropriations for him, a Conservative, than it ever did before for a Liberal.

Mr. Brady indignantly denounces the suggestion that Olof Hanson has had anything to do with the securing of these appropriations for Skeena but it is only fair to Mr. Hanson to point out to Mr. Brady that we commenced to get more of these appropriations only after Mr. Hanson commenced going to Ottawa at his own personal expense.

Is this a mere coincidence, Mr. Brady? Does Mr. Brady wish the electors to believe that he can upbraid the government; that he can hurl insults and denunciations across the floor of the House at the ministers and yet obtain more from these same ministers than a Liberal supporter could?

If he can, then this Liberal Government must be the fairest, the most broadminded, and the most unselfish that has ever governed Canada.

Mr. Brady must not blow hot and cold in the same breath. Either the Liberal Government was very ungenerous to him as he formerly claimed, or it has been most generous with him as he now claims. Which is it, Mr. Brady?
