TERRIBLE RESULT

A terrible result from a trivial action was that in which freely commented on. Captain Guthrie of Comox became the slayer of his own sive display of garments, was the son. People often throw things in fun and sometimes they fashion parade in which the girls do so to the danger of the person at whom they aim but of all grades from six to ten took expect the target to dodge. The catastrophe is a sad warn- part, each wearing a frock of her ing to avoid such dangers.

Possibly this might be an opportune time to moralize ing pupils gave a brief synopsis of 592. and suggest that there are other injurious missiles than the work that had been accomplishsticks and stones. People often thoughtlessly say things ed in their respective grades: about their neighbors which are never intended to hurt and yet which do irreparable injury. Sometimes they kill just as this father killed his own son through carelessness.
