District News METLAKATLA

The entire roof of the local Salvation Army Hall has been completely reshingled, also the south wall. All of the necessary materials were furinshed by the territorial headquarters, Winnipeg, and labor rendered gratis by the local Corps members.

Jas. Prevost has almost completed reshingling the roof of his house," and has also added a porch to it, fronting the street. Wet weather hampered operations.

Mrs. P. Robinson has completely reshingled the entire roof of her house. The work was under the supervision of J. D. Leighton.

Pete Leighton has received orders to build two gasboats. One of them will be used as a troller by Reuben Leighton to replace the one wrecked at Warke Canal towards the final week of the trolling season. The other one will be used as a gillnetter by Peter Nelson.

At the week-end the village was in gala attire, for the visit of Alaska visitors, all members of the Salvation Army, from Metlakatla, Alaska, comprising 15 in all, and under the leadership of Field Captain Atkin-

Daring Aviator To Marry Nurse From Vancouver

Everett L. Wasson, daring young Whitehorse aviator, who rescued two members of Capt. Burke's party and who is now out to recover the body of Burke and take it to whitehorse and thence to Atlin, is to be married shortly to Miss Florence Jones R.N., a graduate of the Vancouver General Hospital nurses' training school. The couple met at Whitehorse last year while the bride-elect was nursing there.
