The former C.G.M.M. freighters Canadian Observer and Canadian Coaster, which have been purchased by the Kingsley Navigation Co., have been renamed Rosebank and Kingsley respectively. The Canadian Rover, purchased by the Coastwise Steamship & Barge Co., has been renamed Bornite. All three boats are well known here, having been former frequent visitors to the port.

Judge F. McB. Young, in County Court yesterday, dismissed an action brought by Christopher McGuire against E. Edison for $80 as wages. McGuire and Edison started out in the crabbing business and the season proved a failure. McGuire then claimed wages from Edison, but his honor decided that he was not entitled to them as a partnership had been entered into. Thomas Brown acted as counsel for the plaintiff and W. O. Fulton for the defendant.
