FROM MOTHER OF EIGHTEEN

Read How This Medicine Helps Her

Cardston, Alberta.—"I am fifty-eight years old and the mother of eighteen living children. We live on a farm and I am a very healthy mother considering that I have such a big family to work for. The druggist first told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have depended on it for many years. When I had this picture taken, the photographer was telling me about his wife's ailments and after I told him about the Vegetable Compound he went to the drug store and bought her two bottles."—MRS. BERTHA SALLENBACH, SR., Cardston, Alberta.

HARD TO PLAY

Court tennis, the most complicated of all court games and one requiring the most skill, has been played continuously for more than seven hundred years.

What part of your newspaper is of most interest to you?

THE front page? The society page? Sports? Woman's page? Financial? Editorial? Cartoons?

There is a part of nearly every page that is practical, helpful, full of news—the advertising. Do you interest yourself in reading it? You should.

Here is news of immediate value to you. Comforts—necessities—luxuries—merchandise every bit of which gives you a dollar's worth of value for every dollar you spend.

In the advertisements is information of practical worth. Reputable merchants bring wares for your inspection that are soundly made and of known, proved value. The statements they make they are willing to sign—knowing that each statement must be truthful, for their reputation, standing in the community, and business prestige is at stake.

It pays to read advertisements. For, in this part of your newspaper, you can find where your money can be spent to best advantage. A very material aid in bettering your every-day life. A way of lengthening your pocket book.

Get the habit of reading the advertisements in this paper, and taking advantage of the help they bring you.
