THE DAILY NEWS

Published Every Afternoon, Except Sunday, by Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenue H. F. PULLEN - - - Managing-Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

By mail to all other parts of British Columbia, the British Em- pire and United States, paid in advance, per year 6.09
By mail to all other countries, per year
By mail to all parts of Northern and Central British Columbia, paid in advance for yearly period
Or four months for 1.00
For lesser period, paid in advance, per month
City delivery, by mail or carrier, yearly period, paid in advance $5.00
Transient advertising on front page, per inch 2.80
Legal notices, each insertion, per agate tine
Local readers, per insertion, per line
Transient display advertising, per inch, per insertion 1.40
Classified advertising, per insertion, per word

Contract rates on application.

Advertising and Circulation Telephone98 Editor and Reporters' Telephone86 Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations

DAILY EDITION

Monday, Sept. 15, 1930

OLD TIMER GONE AWAY

Morte Craig has gone away, temporarily at least, and it is evident he does not expect to return. He has left his business and his friends and is off to see the world of AT BANK which he has read and heard so much. Everyone will wish him God Speed and wish for his safe return.

Mr. Craig has for years been an established institution in Prince Rupert. Not only was he a businessman but an artist. He taught himself to do the wonderful work seen Local Manager Leaves For Vancouon moose hide. He educated himself in the use of both pen and pyrographic tool so that his work became known far beyond the confines of the city or province. His work hangs in the halls of royal personages, of statesmen and soldiers. Whenever Prince Rupert wished to make a pre- of the Bank of Montreal, who resentation of something unique, the people called upon turned last week from a holiday trip' Morte Craig to prepare it.

Mr. Craig was also a poet and prose writer of some note. Princess Louise for Vancouver He had prepared a collection of beautiful poems which he where, as one of the senior officers proposed to publish. Perhaps he will do that now. Possibly of the British Columbia division of too, he may write about the places he visits and illustrate the bank service, he will attend a the books with his own pen. It would be a notable climax banquet to be given this week by to his work.

Many will miss the genial little man from the studio who sir Charles Gordon C.B.E., president always had a cheery word and a smile. We append here- of the bank, and Major General with his farewell to the people of the city.

MR. CRAIG'S FAREWELL

On the eve of my departure I want to thank my friends for the expressions of regret which they have given me, in a manner making it impossible to doubt their sincerity. And I cannot go without leaving behind me all the love and affection I am capable of expressing to a people with whom my wife and myself have so happily associated for twenty Choice of T. R. Davey to Post at consecutive years.

She left just twenty even years from the day I brought her here, and I am leaving now.

We have found nothing but happiness and contentment pointment of T. R. Davey of Queen among you during those years, and you have helped us Charlotte City as stipendiary maboth to realize that, in spite of its evil, the world is just gistrate has proven to be a very chuck full of brave, sweet, lovable people, with their popular one, meeting with the heart-breakingly, beautiful acts of sacrifice and kindness. tives and Liberals on the Islands.

Having lost all interest in business, and having heard, Mr. Davey is one of the real piothrough the Bible, profane history and fiction of the ends neers of the Queen Charlottes, havof the earth, I am faring forth in search of them.

It will be a long journey, but it is a glorious thrill to his arrival on the Islands, Mr. Daknow that how ever far I may wander, the kind thoughts tenay country engaged in the minand wishes of my friends will journey with me entirely to ing business. the end.

Valle! PrinceRupert,

MORTE H. CRAIG.

Class under technical supervision of painter, Kurt Wehlte, making Tresco-paintings on an old house wall of Art and Craft school Berlin west, Germany.

Transferred East

George Wright, broadcasting manager of the Canadian National Radio station. CNRV at Vancouver. Mr. Wright, who is very popular because of his fine radio work, has been transferred to Ottawa to take charge of Station CNRO and leaves on October 1.

ver to Attend Affair in Honor of President and Directors

Arthur H. Carson, local manager to the Queen Charlotte Islands, sailed yesterday afternoon on the C. W. Chesterton, superintendent for British Columbia, in honor of Hon. S. C. Mewburn C.M.G., General Sir Arthur Currie G.C.M., K.C.B., and W. A. Black, directors.

IS POPULAR

Queen Charlotte City Praised On All Sides

SKIDEGATE, Sept. 15:- The ap-

ing come here 22 years ago. Before

Salvation Army Harvest Festival

Offerings Will Be Received All This Week and Special Meetings to Be Held Next

The Salvation Army is conducting its annual harvest festival campaign this week when offerings of home products, produce, fruit, etc. will be received for display and sale at an auction to be conducted next Monday in the Citadel. Special meetings will be held on certain evenings this week and will culminate in large special meetings on Sunday next.

All the proceeds of the campaign will be applied to the Army's local

Was Chairman of Ladies' Committee

Mrs. T. H. Johnson Active at Big Convention in Montreal

Mrs. T. H. Johnson of this city was chairman of the ladies' committee in connection with the annual convention last week in Montreal of the Canadian Fisheries Association. She took a leading part in all social events held during the convention.

MEDICAL STREET OF STREET O

Fashion Fads and Fancies from Paris and New York

Daily News artist gives a few of the latest designs in afternoon dresses fur Coats, rain coats, children's dresses and stylish millinery

