Chicago Cubs Deposed From National League Leadership By St. Louis and Brooklyn

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15:-St. Louis Cardinals took first place in the National League on Saturday by defeating Boston Braves. Brooklyn Robins maintained the virtual tic with the Cards by winning over Cincinnati Reds in a tight contest. Chicago Cubs completed their gradual fall from the top by losing to the Phillies and were half a game behind the Cardinals and the Rob-

Philadelphia Athletics and Washington Senators continued their race, hopeless as it may seem for the latter, for the American League pennant by defeating Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox respectively. Saturay's scores were as follows:

American League Boston 4-2, St. Louis 5-5. Philadelphia 9, Cleveland 2. New York 10.4, Detroit 11-9.

National League St. Louis 8, Boston 2. Cincinnati 3, Brooklyn 4. Chicago 3, Philadelphia 7.

Washington 6, Chicago 4.
