Five Unions of Prince Rupert Sympathetic to Workers Taking Action

Trades and Labor Council Receives Replies From Constituent Bodies to Its Query as to Entering Political Field

Members of five out of seven of the constituent unions of the Prince Rupert Trades & Labor Council have voted in favor of the formation of a Labor Party in local politics, it was reported at last night's regular meeting of the council. In some cases the decision was unanimous and in all the five there were substantial majorities in favor of the proposal. The Car Workers'z Union has expressed itself as being opposed to a local Labor Party, while the Typrographical Union has not as yet taken the matter up.

Replies from the constituent unions to the Trades & Labor Council were received at last night's meet-

Maple Leaf Milling Co. Loses More Than Three Million Dollars In Sixteen Months

Directors Explain

Unauthorized Speculations and Advances Are Blamed For Condition of Affairs

MONTREAL, Oct. 18:-An operating loss of more than three million dollars in sixteen months ending July 31 last is shown in the annual report of the Maple Leaf Milling Co. Ltd. This figure, according to statement, is before providing for certain reserves but includes "losses from unauthorized speculalations." The previous surplus carried forward at nearly $5;500,000 was practically wiped out, leaving a balance of about $10,000.

The directors stressed unfavorable milling conditions and mentioned that the unfavorable showing was "due in large measure to speculations made by the management without authority of the directors." There were also losses due toba and Saskatchewan and, after relief here this winter.
