J. B. Turnbull Is One District Operator Who Is Not Pessimistic As to Season's Prospects

timber man of the Fort George district who does not share the pessimism of some others as to prospects for the coming season's busimonths, he says, millmen will be out logs.

There was an off-season for millmen of Fort George district during SPRING SALE the cut is still in the mill yards. A good deal is commencing to move out now, however, and the situation looks distinctly better. A small cut of logs was made during the Over $70 Realized at Affair of Capast winter and, if there should be a big market revival this summer, the millmen might be hard put to keep up with the demand.

With the exception of the big mill at Giscome, most of the large mills in the district east of Prince George are in good shape for logging during the summer as their timber is all well within two miles of their mills or of water transport to them. Within this distance, it is ter logging.

Huge Bear Had Strange Fate

SKIDEGATE, May 2:-Hearing a commotion in the woods near Morgan's logging camp at Cumshews Inlet last week, Elmer Palmer and others proceeded to investigate what it was all about and found a huge bear with its head torn off ness. Far from seeing a stagnation and its four paws devoured. The rein the lumber business of that dis- mains were still warm when found trict during the coming summer, and Mr. Palmer proceeded to skin Mr. Turnbull predicts that it will what was left of the bear. The next be one of the busiest summers in day there was nothing left of the the history of the sawmilling in- carcass and even the bones had dustry of the district. Within three disappeared. What happened to Bruin and what took its carcass hopping all over their limits to get away is a mystery that none are able to fathom.

WHAT HAPPENED TO CLASSICAL MUSIC LOVER ON ISLANDS

SKIDEGATE, May 2:-Capt. J. Haan, who is very fond of classical music, remonstrated with his children for always playing jazz and ordered them to shut off the phonograph. Going over to the radio, he told them to listen for he was going to turn on some real music. What should blare out of the loud speaker than "Get Away, Old Man, Get Away!" Cap. says he has given up.

THE BOY BEHIND THE BISCUIT

Ever see a boy behind a Shredded Wheat Biscuit? You will have to look quick before the biscuit disappearsbut wait and you will see him take another biscuit—and more milk. The more he chews the crisp shreds of baked whole wheat, the more he likes it—and that's the reason he is a real boy, full of bounding energy and radiant health. Just as good for grown-ups. Delicious with prunes, baked apples, sliced bananas or any fruit.
