Weekly Holiday

The newly formed branch of the Mechanics and Automotive Trades Association of Canada wishes to inform the automobile owners of Prince Rupert that starting Saturday, July 12th of July, date of their first annual picnic and every Saturday thereafter the repair shops of this city (not including gas, nump service) shall be closed from noon that day until Monday, 8 a.m Prince Rupert mechanics are good fellows trying to contribute in making this city a still better place to live in and can appreciate a nice week-end rest. Therefore they ask the kind co-operation of automobile owners to enable them to carry this out. The boys can do a lot of work if conveniently brought in during week days, and don't forget, their's is a hard and dirty grind at best. So help along and benefit by to the city on the Prince Charles having your cars fixed during the this morning after having made week. Also do not try, please, to the round trip to Stewart. Anyox make them break their week-end and their rules. It would work hardships on them, and you could
