For the High School, Principal D. H. Hartness reported total attendance of 183, 75 being boys and 108 Inspector William Spiller, pro- girls. The average attendance for tendency throughout the year in the work of the pupils and the tone of the school had been good. The introduction of the four-year High For the benefit of those who go out School course next term might make another classroom necessary, Principal Hartness forecasted. For Libby's Pork & Beans-1's, the Senior Matriculation class next year, only six pupils were so far offering. Mr. Hartness expressed regret that there would be a number of changes in the teaching staff next year through several teachers resigning. Miss E. A. Mercer, principal, reported a total enrolment at Booth Columbia Strawberry Jam 60C Memorial School of 452 consisting of 230 boys and 222 girls with average attendance of 95.36%. School savings for June had amounted to $72.36. Forty-six pupils had been promoted to High School on recommendation and 13 were trying government examinations, 10 who had failed to be recommended and three who were competing for medals. Miss Mercer emphasized the need Pan Yan Pickles-20-oz. of additional playground space being provided at her school.

Miss S. A. Mills' report for Boren Street School showed total enolment of 307, 143 boys and 164 girls. The average attendance for 47 pupils already in sight.
