AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico, Dec. 22.—Ninety-three of the world's best golf players were here today for the qualifying round of the $25,000 Mexican open golf championship. The final round is scheduled for January 23, 24 and 25.

SPORT CHAT

Al Pudas, who has played Allan Cup hockey with Port Arthur and pro hockey with Windsor, Detroit and a number of other teams, plays golf fine. He joined Gordon Drillon, Howie Morenz and a host of others on the list of golf-starring hockeyists when he won the Port Arthur Masonic golf title recently. He was presented with the Harold Rourke memorial trophy, emblematic honor, at a meeting of the Shuniah Lodge, A. F. & A. M.

A U. S. team probably will be sent abroad to compete in the world's amateur championship hockey matches to be held at Krynica, Poland, January 8 to 11. A canvass of clubs in Portland, Ore., San Francisco, Los Angeles, Denver, St. Louis, Chicago, Minneapolis, Detroit, Boston, Cleveland, Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York is under way with a view to selecting a representative team of amateur stars.

Postage Money Is Needed By Scouts

Further Consignment of Toys To Be Sent to Interior Families For Christmas

The Boy Scouts, who have already done such good work in repairing toys for distribution among the less fortunate children of city and district, are in need of further money to defray postage expenses, it was stated this morning by Scoutmaster P. C. Miller. In addition to those that have already been sent, the boys have another large lot of toys to go out by mail.

Three hundred and thirty-five toys and twenty-five gramophone records have already been distributed by the boys. One hundred and seven children have been reached by the distribution.

In Prince Rupert

December 23, 1919

Under a new licence bylaw which was approved by the city council yesterday, bars in Prince Rupert will have to close earlier. The closing hour for week-days will be 11 p.m. and Saturdays, 10 p.m. The bars will remain closed all Sunday.

As a result of a conference this morning between representatives of the hospital board and city council, it is likely that the city will make a grant of $1000 to hospital funds.

The steamer Prince George sailed last evening for Vancouver with many Christmas passengers on board. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Newton, Ald. and Mrs. J. M. Hilditch and P. W. Scott.

Eagles' Lodge Has Xmas Tree

Children of Members Delightfully Entertained Last Evening at Lodge Hall

The Eagles' Lodge held a Christmas Tree last evening in the lodge hall for children of the members of the order. There were about 150 kiddies present and a very happy time was spent by all. The hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The feature of the proceedings, of course, was the visit of Santa Claus who distributed presents and confections for all.

During the evening there was a delightful program by the children.

The drawing for $10 in cash prizes resulted in the following as winners: first, Mrs. W. H. Derry; second, G. Norman; third, Dolly Smith. The lucky tickets were drawn by little Misses Irene and Helen Gammie.

A ladies' committee assisted with the serving of delicious refreshments.

F. Hunter was in charge of all arrangements for the entertainment.

District News

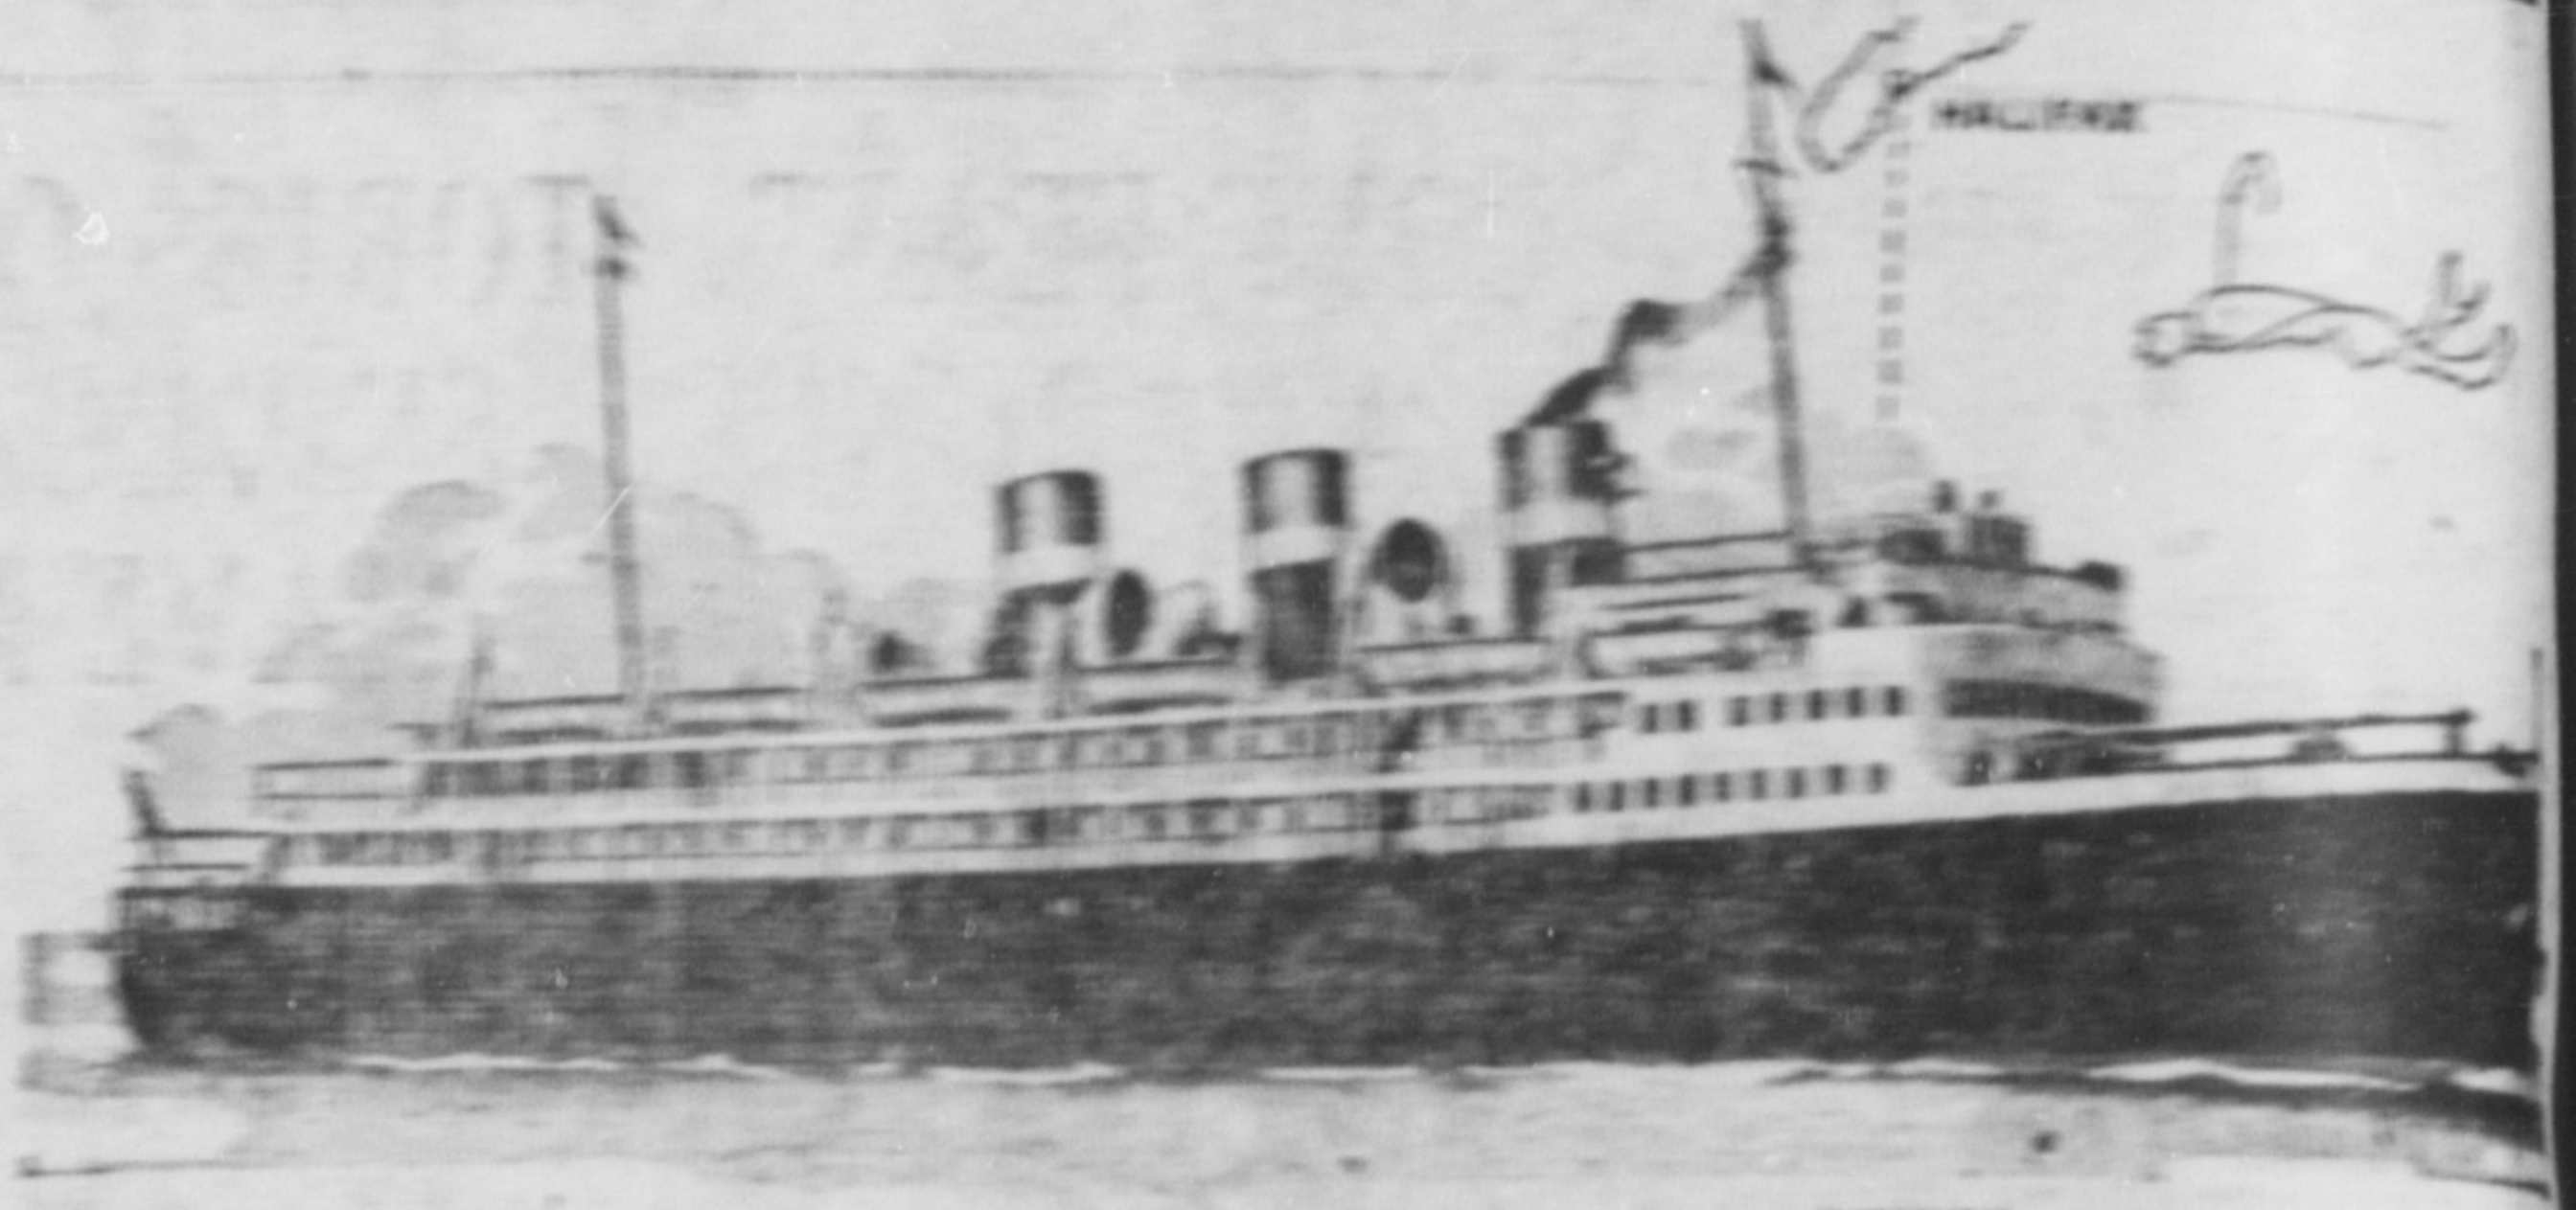
VANDERHOOF

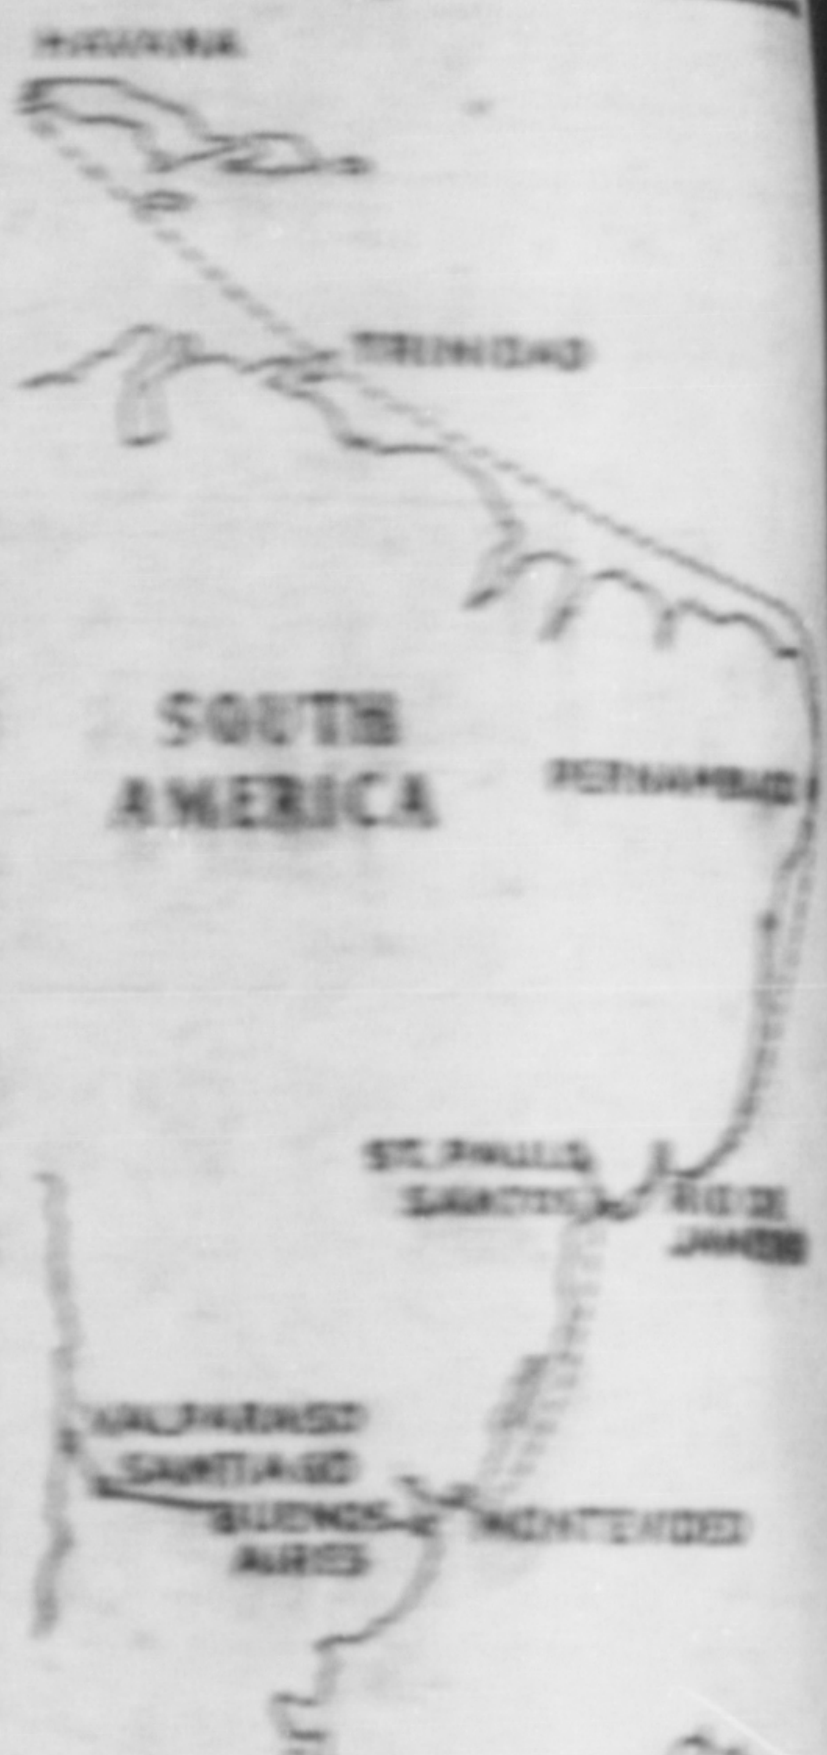
The official opening of the new Canadian Legion Hall here on Monday night of last week was a notable affair in the history of the village. George Ogston, president of the Canadian Legion, made an appropriate address. R. G. Mathews spoke on behalf of the village corporation and the Board of Trade. A cabaret dance followed the official opening ceremonies.

The Vanderhoof and District Board of Trade tendered a dinner last Wednesday evening to R. I. Van Der Byl and T. H. Cressy, airmen, after their hike out from Thutade Lake where they were left over a month ago.

Stephen Holmes has been appointed returning officer for the civic election here on January 29 next. All three present commissioners, George Ogston, R. G. Mathews and R. N. Taylor, will seek re-election.

FIRST PASSENGER SHIP FROM CANADA TO CARRY CANADIAN TRADE MERCHANTS TO SOUTH AMERICA





With the sailing from Halifax on March 2nd next, on the Canadian National passenger steamer "Prince Robert," the first passenger ship to make a voyage from a Canadian port to a South American port, a representative delegation from Canada will go to Latin America on a trade tour, now being organized by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce with the co-operation of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and agricultural interests.

These merchant adventurers from Canada go with the hope of extending the volume of commerce in markets wherein Canadian enterprises are established and particularly to create new opportunities for the marketing of Canada's surplus products and for the filling of her own requirements. These "newer" markets are both ready and willing to trade with Canada on mutually advantageous terms. South American countries supply Canada with many primary necessities and these people have been branching out in ever increasing measure into trade with the world powers. They are suppliers of food for the tables of the nations and now, having assimilated ideas on their overseas ventures, they are demanding commodities which the more industrialized nations can supply. Latin-Americans are increasingly merchandising their methods of production and Canada has in South America opportunities of a very real nature; opportunities not merely for the manufacturer, but also for the miner, the lumberman, the fisherman, and the agriculturalist. Banks, financial houses, merchants and transportation and insurance companies also have a wide field of enterprise before them in facilitating the development of trade and commerce with South America.

Many socially prominent Canadians are to be found on the advance list of passengers who will join the cruise of Latin-American countries.

The list of stateroom reservations made to date aboard the "Prince Robert" includes Senator C. P. Beaubien and Mrs. Beaubien, of Montreal, and their son, John Beaubien and his wife, also of Montreal; F. Roy Sumner, president Sumner Company, hardware, Moncton, N.B.; Elmer Davis, president Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and Mrs. Davis, Kingston; A. H. Buckley, chain drug store president, and Mrs. Buckley, Halifax; Senator C. W. Robinson, Moncton, N.B.; Angus McLean, president Canadian Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. McLean, Bathurst, N.B.; George MacDonald, present chairman executive of Canadian Chamber of Commerce and past president Montreal Board of Trade, Montreal, and Mrs. MacDonald; J. Elliott, manager, Canadian Bank of Commerce at Belleville, Ontario; Major J. O. Thorn, member executive Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and Mrs. Thorn, Toronto; J. A. Paulhus, past president of Chambre de Commerce, Montreal, and Mrs. Paulhus, Montreal; Jules E. A. Dubuc, M.P., for Chicoutimi, Que., Miss Marie Dubuc and Miss Esther Dubuc, Chicoutimi; Hugh McLean, of McLean Investments, Bathurst (son of Angus McLean), and Mrs. McLean, Bathurst, N.B.; C. E. Frosst, of Chas. E. Frosst Company (pharmaceutical supplies, Frosst's aspirin pills, etc.), Montreal, and Mrs. Frosst, Montreal; E. L. Ruddy, sign advertising, Toronto, and Mrs. Ruddy, Toronto; J. M. Mackie, president Brinton-Peterboro Carpet Company, Montreal, and Mrs. Mackie, Montreal.
