PRINCESS MARY IN WITH SILVER ORE FOR ANYOX SMELTER

The Princess Mary arrived from the north at 6 o'clock this morning with the capacity passenger list of the season. Owing to all the available accommodation on the steamer being taken up with the out-going Alaska passengers, she was unable to book any out of Prince Rupert. Among her passengers was Capt. Barrington, president of the Barrington Transportation Co. of New York, which operates boats from Wrangell to Telegraph Creek on the Stikine River. He is returning to New York for the winter. Another party also bound for New York was that headed by Capt. Bailie who has been big game hunting in the Stikine River valley with great success.

Besides her big passenger list, the Princess Mary also had a good deal of cargo and she spent the most of the four hours she was in port unloading silver ore from Skagway, which is to be transhipped to the Anyox smelter. She pulled out at 10 o'clock for Vancouver and Victoria.

WANT RIGHT TO TAX GOVERNMENT LANDS

Council Supports Action of Union of Canadian Municipalities in Demand.

A telegram from the secretary of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, of Montreal, was read at last night's council meeting. This union, it was pointed out, differed from the Union of B. C. Municipalities in that it was an association of all municipalities throughout the Dominion. The message drew attention to the fact that in the G. T. P. bill that is going through the House of Commons and Senate there is no specific provision for the payment of the railroad's property taxation to the municipalities. The Union was demanding that this be embodied in the bill and asked for the support of the cities concerned.

Mayor McClymont had replied to the message supporting the demand on behalf of the city of Prince Rupert where the company has property to the assessed value of $4,500,000. The action of the mayor was endorsed by the city council by a resolution moved by Ald. McMeekin, seconded by Ald. Perry and carried unanimously.

ORBITA RETURNS TO PEACE DUTIES AGAIN

Big Liner, Here During Was as Auxiliary Cruiser, Reopens Service from England to South America.

Coincident with the celebration of the eighteenth anniversary of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, the Company's liner, Orbita, sailed from Southampton on September 26 for South America, resuming this passenger and mail service which was cut off during the war.

Victorians will remember the Orbita as the auxiliary cruiser which called at Esquimalt while doing patrol work in the Pacific, and which came to Prince Rupert to dock. She is a palatial craft of over 16,000 tons, and on her first voyage on the South American route carried quite a number of distinguished passengers.

The Seal Cove Marine Ways, Limited, of Prince Rupert has just been incorporated with a capital of $10,000. The objects of the company are for marine repairs and the construction of boats and a general business in connection with marine industries.

A letter from the Prince Rupert Hotel asking for permission to use the space under the sidewalk abutting their premises for the purpose of storing coal, baggage, etc., was referred to the Public Works Committee for report at last night's council meeting.

I was a great sufferer for many years from Nervous Headaches and Constipation. I tried everything, consulted doctors; but nothing seemed to help me until I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'." After taking several boxes, I was completely relieved of these troubles and have been unusually well ever since". Miss ANNIE WARD. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. England's Chancellor of the Exchequer is a home-loving man, as may be seen by a glance at this photograph, showing the statesman on the grounds of his Sussex home surrounded by his children. Mrs. Austen Chamberlain is also seen gathering a basket of flowers in her garden.
