Royal Commission's Report to Premier Has Elaborate Findings

TORONTO, Aug. 23:-The Royal Commission on Public Welfare which was appointed by the Ferguson Government last October to inquire as to the charitable and corrective institutions and agencies in Ontario has made its report to the government. It is a document of Are

If the recommendations of the commission should be accepted, the government will be committed to an immediate or early capital expenditure of from twenty million to every direction. twenty-five million dollars.

account. There would also be an increased annual operating cost of two or three millions in consequence of new construction or of improvement, or enlargement of existing institutions, or increased cost of government agencies.

The following summary gives the chief points of the report: The commissioners, P. D. Ross, of Ottawa, chairman; D. M. Wright, M.P., of Stratford, and Dr. J. M. McCutcheon, of Toronto, were ap-

"To investigate and report upon the Public General Hospitals of Ontario, the Private Hospitals, Public and Private Sanatoria, the Ontario Hospitals for the Insane and Mentally Defective, etc., the Penal and Corrective Institutions, the Jails and Industrial Farms, the Houses of Refuge, the agencies for the care of children and any cognate subjects."

Play Boys' Dance Held Last Night

Good Sized Crowd Had Delightful Time Dancing to Snappy Music in Moose Hall

Pat's Play Boys, styled as the Premier dance orchestra of the interior, gave a dance last night in the Moose Hall. The five-piece musical group provided a fine brand of snappy music which was delightful to a good sized crowd which was in attendance.

The Play Boys will hold another dance here this evening, it is announced.
