MY WHOLE LIFE

was spent in trying to cure an ulcer by using ordinary ointments," writes Mrs. Jeffrey, of 21 French Street, Methuen. "Then I heard of Zam-Buk, used it, and am now completely cured."

"Thirty-three years ago the ulcer appeared on my ankle, and gradually spread to my knee. The pain was terrific. For years I could hardly walk and had to remain in the house. For twenty-five years I received doctors' treatment but got only temporary relief."

"Then I heard of some wonderful cures worked by Zam-Buk and commenced using it. The relief experienced was wonderful. The inflammation was gradually drawn out. The pain was soon ended, and, at last after thirty-three years of misery, I was on the road to recovery. To cut a long story short—perseverance with this wonderful balm resulted in a complete and permanent cure."

Zam-Buk is also unequalled for eczema, ringworm, abscesses, boils, blood-poisoning, burns, scalds, cuts, and all skin injuries. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, No. box, 3 for $1.25.

AWAITS TRIAL AT KETCHIKAN

Patsy Shanahan to Come up at The Assizes Now on in Alaskan Town.

Reports brought from Ketchikan state that there have been no new developments in the Ragar murder case. Patsy Shanahan, accused of the crime, is now in the jail and it is expected that he will come up for trial this week before the assizes that are now on there.

Shanahan is said to have been somewhat unbalanced for some time and it is stated that he has made threats against several of the officers of the law. In fact, four years ago he was recommended for the asylum, but nothing came of it.

On Thursday he went out with two loaded Colt automatics on a killing mission and calmly shot Deputy United States Attorney Steve Ragar in the main street. He then went to his room in the hotel where he was followed by the U. S. marshal and two constables. Fearing a desperate character, one of the police took a chair and mounted to the transom and covered him with his revolver and told him to come to the door where the other two took him. On being told he was under arrest he did not even ask why.

If his insanity is proven he will probably escape jail, but at any rate, the worst he can get is life imprisonment, as capital punishment has been abolished in Alaska.

PRINCE HAS CLEAR CARRYING VOICE

All Who Have Heard Him Remark His Speaking Abilities.

Everyone who has heard him has commented upon the Prince of Wales' remarkable voice. It is clear, with great carrying powers, the enunciation is distinct. Every word is well defined. Very few public men possess a voice of such splendid speaking qualities. Without apparent effort he can make himself heard four and five hundred yards away.

The keenest critics of voice qualities, the soldiers who have listened to commands and speeches through the medium of all sorts of voices, from the voices of sergeants to the voices of princes of the blood on days of high ceremony, praise with emphasis the speaking ability of the Prince of Wales.

And further, the Prince has a happy aptitude for choosing words of concise, direct and attractive meaning.

What phrase could be better than his "The Victory Loan is the bridge between war and peace."

The Prince of Wales has graciously consented to the use of his coat of arms on a flag which is to be the prize of honor; for districts winning their quota in the loan. A flag will also be given to organizations of fifty or more employees.

"I hope every city and district will win my flag," says the Prince.

BASKETBALL GAMES PLAYED LAST NIGHT

Beavers Beat the Cubs and the Colts Trotted all Around the Drydocks.

The boys are making preparations for entering the junior league which it is proposed to form in connection with the Basketball Association. Two games were played last night at the Exhibition Building. The Cubs and Beavers clashed for a short time and by a score of six to four the Beavers won.

In the second game the Colts trotted all around the Drydocks, winning by a score of 13 to 3. The Drydocks and the Colts are old rivals and it is expected that the former team will be strengthened before the next match and that some lively play will result.

QUICK ACTION

Frank Badgley, of the Canadian Field Artillery, who was decorated by King George with the military medal as the only survivor of a gallant party which charged a machine gun nest, met Miss June Elvidge, the movie actress, at the Victory Ball in New York and immediately asked her to marry him. She accepted him, and within 48 hours they were wedded and on their way to Canada.

Synopsis of Land Act Amendments

Minimum price of first-class land reduced to $2 an acre; second-class to $1.50 an acre.

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emption abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation not less than 5 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health, or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued, provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $50 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture.

Title cannot be obtained in less than 5 years, and improvements of $10.50 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years are required.

Pre-emptor holding Crown grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads, title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes areas exceeding 50 acres may be leased by one person or company.

Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased; conditions include payment of stumpage.

Natural hay meadows inaccessible by existing roads may be purchased conditional upon construction of a road to them. Rebate of one-half of cost of road, not exceeding half of purchase price, is made.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

No fees relating to pre-emptions are due or payable by soldiers on pre-emptions recorded after June 26, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years.

Provision for return of moneys accrued, due and been paid since August 4, 1914, on account of payments, fees or taxes on soldiers' pre-emptions.

Interest on agreements to purchase town or city lots held by members of Allied Forces, or dependents, acquired direct or indirect, remitted from settlement to March 31, 1920.

SUB-PURCHASERS OF CROWN LANDS.

Provision made for issuance of Crown grants to sub-purchasers of Crown Lands, acquiring rights from purchasers who failed to complete purchase, involving forfeiture, on fulfilment of conditions of purchase, including payment of purchase price, interest and taxes. Where sub-purchasers do not claim whole of original parcel, purchase price due and taxes may be distributed proportionately over whole area. Applications must be made by May 1, 1920.

GRAZING.

Grazing Act, 1913, for systematic development of livestock industry provides for grazing districts and range administration under Commissioner. Annual grazing permits issued based on numbers ranged; priority for established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits for settlers, campers or travellers, up to ten head.
