Frankie Neel

Popular local boy appearing at Ocean Falls soon.

BAGSHAW, NEEL GOING SOUTH

Empress Social Club Sending Both Boys to Ocean Falls Soon

Arrangements have been completed between E. P. Murphy of Ocean Falls and the Empress Social Club for the appearance of Bill Bagshaw and Frankie Neel at a big boxing meet in the "paper" town on June 12.

This is the first fight event of any importance which has been staged in Ocean Falls for a considerable time and comes partly as a result of increased activity in the south as well as in Northern B.C.

Bill Bagshaw, who has not participated in any events since his sensational scrap against Henry Deeth at Anyox two months back, will be featured in the main event against a 142-lb. Ocean Falls lad. Bill will weigh about 137 pounds for the fight which is scheduled to go 10 rounds.

Frankie Neel, who has already started light training for his important fight against Jumbo Davies of Victoria here June 24, will appear in the six-round semi-final against another Ocean Falls boy. Both boys are highly regarded for their fighting ability by local fans are fully expected to "bring home the bacon."
