Fraser River Fishers Refuse To Take Sixty Cent Bid For Sockeye

Another Conference to Be Held Tonight With Canners Before Final Action in Matter Is Taken

NEW WESTMINSTER, June 2:—The possibility of a salmon fishermen's strike on the Fraser River loomed up today as a result of members of the British Columbia Fishermen's Protective Association deciding on Saturday to refuse the offer of 60c a fish for sockeye and 22 1-2 for coho salmon. Association representatives will have a further conference tonight with the canners. The 60 cent offer applies only to the Fraser River, 50 cents being the price suggested for northern canneries.
