TERRIBLE SUFFERING Day And Night With Eczema

Mrs. Martin H. Giesbrecht, Winkler, Man., writes:-"I have used with good results for eczema. My face and shoulders were simply covered with blotches of this terrible disease.

"Nothing did me any good until I took your medicine and it has relieved me of the terrible suffering I had to go through day and night." Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SPECIALS

FRUITS FOR SALAD-Small. 5 for 21/2s. 2 for . Small. 5 for

DEL MONTE APRICOTS- 050 statesmen of Europe. 2 for RIES-2s. 3 for SINGAPORE PINES-2s.

EAGLE BLUEBERRIES-2s. 4 for

DEL MONTE PEARS—21/28. 95°C should say. Especially if one knows boundary dispute?"

about them from the inside." "Never," said Bund

Stock Your Larder at

These Prices

Mussallem Grocery Co.

Limited 417-423 5th Avenue East PHONE 18 AND 84 P. O. Box 575.

SUITS! SUITS!

MADE TO ORDER

Cutting, Workmanship and Style All Guaranteed

SUITS STEAM CLEANED ANI PRESSED

We Deliver to Any Part of the Macatta, Aunt Marcia?"

Ling, the Tailor

Phone 649

SCALE OF CHARGES

* notices:

Birth Notices 50c. Cards of Thanks, $2. Funeral Notices $1. Funeral Flowers 10c per name.

Marriage and Engagement + announcements $2.

The By Agatha Christie

Copyright by Public Ledger INSTALMENT XII.

She was somewhat surprised to see her niece, but accorded her a frigid cheek which Bundle duly

"This is quite an unexpected pleasure, Eileen," she said coldly.

Much as usual?"

ment. She had a poor opinion of tant that the present-day young quis of Caterham. She would have an intelligent interest in the welshe known the term fare of their country."

"Father is very well. He's down never approved of the letting of She called in a piercing voice, Chimneys. The place is, in many "Miss Connor." ways, a historical monument. It 950 should not be cheapened."

"It must have been wonderful in QEo Uncle Henry's day," said Bundle with a slight sigh.

"Henry realized his responsibil-850 ities," said Henry's widow.

Her Political View DEL MONTE PEACHES— 950 "Think of the persons who up Jimmy Thesiger. His first small. 5 for stayed there," went on Bundle ec- words were full of triumph.

Lady Caterham sighed.

She shook her head sadly. 950 dle, "and yet they are about the must do the thing properly. Have most fascinating study there is, I you ever heard of the Santa Fe

"I am pleased to hear you say one has to specialize."

but this modern pursuit of pleas- Marcia gave them to me."

"I used to." said Bundle. thoughtfully. "But with your ad- George's party." vantages, and if you were to marry suitably, you might be one of Bundle felt slightly alarmed. For a moment she feared that her tell Loraine that-eh?" aunt might produce a suitable husband straight away.

Bundle. "I mean I know so little." kept out of it." "That can easily be remedied," said Lady Caterham briskly. "I have any amount of literature I that run into danger!" can lend you."

Bundle, and proceeded hastily to The prospect of her running into her second line of attack.

"I wondered if you knew Mrs. any qualms whatever. "Certainly I know her. A most Jimmy.

estimable woman with a brilliant "No, I was only thinking." brain. I may say that as a general "I see. I say, are you going to rule I do not hold with women the inquest tomorrow?' ' standing for Parliament. They can "Yes; are you?" make their influence felt in a "Yes. By the way, it's in the evereluctant husband into the polit- about it." ical arena and the marvelous suc- "Yes- so should I." And the work Mrs. Macatta is do- got to where Bolivia sent us ing is of truly national impor- note." tainly meet Mrs. Macatta."

thought of asking me. Thinks I'm ner. too much of an idiot, I suppose."

Bundle "Grown Up"

fully improved. Had she, perhaps, her maid. And having donned and had been underestimated by had an unfortunate love affair? An unfortunate love affair, Lady Caterham's opinion, was often highly beneficial to young girls. It made them take life ser-

"I don't suppose George Lomax Eileen, dear," she said. "I must have a few words with him."

"He doesn't like me," said Bundle. "I know he won't ask me." "Nonsense." said Lady Cater-I knew George Lomax when he "We've only just got back, Aunt was so high." She indicated a quite impossible height. "He will be on-"I know. How is your father? ly too pleased to do me a favor. And he will be sure to see for Her tone conveyed disparage- himself that it is vitally impor-Alastair Edward Brent, ninth Mar- girls of our own class should take > Bundle nearly said "Hear, hear!" but checked herself.

"I will find you some literature "Indeed. You know, Eileen, I now," said Lady Caterham, rising.

> A very neat secretary with a frightened expression came running. Lady Caterham gave her various directions. Presently Bundle was driving back to Brook Street with an armful of the driest looking literature imaginable.

Her next proceeding was to ring statistically. "All the principal "I've managed it," he said. "Had a lot of trouble with Bill, though. He'd got it into his thick head "I can truly say that history has that I should be a lamb among the $1.00 been made there more than once," wolves. But I made him see sense she observed. "If only your father at last. I've got a lot of thingummy bobs now and I'm studying them. You know, blue books and "Politics bore father," said Bun- white papers. Deadly dull-but one

"Never," said Bundle.

She made this extravagently un- "Well, I'm taking special pains DEL MONTE PEARS—2s. $1.00 truthful statement of her feelings with that. It went on for years without even a blush. Her aunt and was very complicated. I'm looked at her with some surprise, making it my subject. Nowadays so," she said. "I always imagined, "I've got a lot of the same sort Eileen, that you cared for nothing of things," said Bundle. "Aunt "Aunt who?"

"Aunt Marcia-father's sister-in-"It is true that you are still law. She's very political. In fact, twice," he admitted, "But nothing desired to briefly explain the situavery young," said Lady Caterham she's going to get me invited to Unblushing Liars "No?" Oh, I say, that will be then Jimmy said:

the leading political hostesses of splendid." There was a pause, and "I say, I don't think we'd better

"Perhaps not." "You see, she mayn't like being "But I feel such a fool," said out of it. And she really must be

"I mean you can't let a girl like Bundle reflected that Mr. Thes-"Thank you, Aunt Marcia," said iger was slightly deficient in tact. a strong one.

"Have you gone away?" asked ed, doubtless to recall the womanly a corner. Funny-I should think falls into conversation." way in which she had forced a they'd have made rather a splash

The following is the scale & cess which had crowned his and "Well," said Jimmy, "I must be of charges made for reading her efforts. "But still times change, getting on with my task. I've just Bundle gave a rather dismal "I think so. Are you?" "Oh probably. Good night."

They were both liars of the most party at George Lomax' next unblushing order. Jimmy Thesiger week. He asked father, who, of knew perfectly well that he was Public Gathering Last course, won't go, but he never taking Loraine Wade out to din-

As for Bundle, no sooner had she rung off than she attired herself It occurred to Lady Caterham in various nondescript garments that her niece was really wonder- belonging, as a matter of fact, to them, she sallied out on foot, de-that body. There were also the liberating whether bus or tube power negotiations about which he would be the best route by which had heard no complaint. The counto reach the Seven Dials Club.

THE SEVEN DIALS CLUB

realizes for a moment that you street about 6 p.m. At that hour, in here. He criticized Ex-Mayor have—shall we say, grown up? as she rightly judged, the Seven Newton for casting a reflection up-Dials Club was a dead spot. Bun- on the honesty and integrity of the dle's aim was a simple one. She men who might be elected aldermen intended to get hold of the ex- in 1930 by urging that the money footman, Alfred. She was convinc- bylaws not be passed until the comed that, once she got hold of him, plexion of that council became ham. "I shall make a point of it. the rest would be easy. Bundle had known. He did not think it was cona simple autocratic method of sistent for Ald. Prudhomme to say dealing with retainers. It seldom in one breath that the city was on failed, and she saw no reason why the verge of a receivership and it should fail now.

> was not certain was how many people inhabited the club premises. Naturally, she wished to disclose her presence to as few people as possible.

> Whilst she was hesitating as to her best line of attack the problem was solved for her in a singuarlly easy fashion. The door No. 14 opened and Alfred himself came out. Bundle pleasantly.

Alfred jumped. "Oh! good afternoon, your ladyladyship for a moment."

Paying a tribute in her own mind to her maid's clothing, Bundle proceeded to business.

know-it's not what you might call on the council equal with that of a nice part round here-I don't other interests, and, second, beknow, I'm sure-"

Bundle cut his short. "Who's in the club?"

"No one at present, my lady." "Then we'll go in there."

able Alfred.

Against the Law

crisply, "that what you're doing whole. here is dead against the law?" Alfred shifted uncomfortably from one foot to the other. "It's true as we've been raided compromising was found, owing to tion pertaining to the two money the neatness of Mr. Mosgorovsky's bylaws that were being offered for arrangements."

only," said Bundle. "There's more than that—probably a great deal to be met. He thought the people more than you know. I'm going to ask you a direct question, Alfred, and I should like the truth please How much were you paid for leaving Chimneys?"

Alfred looked twice round the cornice, as thought seeking for inspirations, swallowed three or four times and then took the inevitable WERKHOVEN

"It was this way, your ladyship. danger did not seem to give him Mr. Mosgorovsky, he come with a party to visit Chimneys on one of the show days.

"Mr. Tredwell, he was indisposed like—an ingrowing toe-nail as matter of fact-so it fell to me to show the parties over. At the end of the tour, Mr. Mosgorovsky, he says behind the rest, and after more womanly fashion." She paus- ning papers. But tucked away in giving me something handsome, he

"Yes," said Bundle encouraging-

"And the long and the short it was," said Alfred, with a sudden acceleration of his narrative, "that he offers me a hundred pound down to leave that instant mintance, and of the utmost value to "I suppose I must get on with ute and to look after this here all women. It is, I think I may say, my little lot," said Bundle. "Are club. He wanted someone as was true womanly work. You must cer- you going to swot at it all the eve- used to the best families—to give the Silent Land,' and Eugene the place a tone, as he put it. And, Field's 'Dream, Dream, Dream'. well, it seemed flying in the face of providence to refuse-let alone that the wages I get here are just three times what they were a second footman."

"A hundred pounds," said Bundle. "That's a very large sum, Alfred. Did they say anything about who was to fill your place

"I demurred a bit, my lady about leaving at once. As I pointed out, it wasn't usual and might cause inconvenience. But Mr. Mosgorovsky he knew of a young chap -been in good service and ready to come any minute. So I men- Arm merchant, was a passenger tioned his name to Mr. Tredwell and everything was settled pleas- going through to Vancouver where ant like."

(To Be Continued Tomorrow)

THE RESIDENCE OF THE PARTY OF T

Night in Interests of Cyril Orme Was Large

(continued from page two)

been planned by the 1927 council cil had also pressed for continuation of the highway, the Peace River outlet and had even taken up the Bundle reached 14 Hunstanton matter of having the C.P.R. come the next declare his belief The only thing of which she great things were in store Prince Rupert.

J. H. Pillsbury

J. H. Pillsbury stated that he was running to the council because he believed his experience and knowledge of local conditions might be of some use to the city. He considered the Peace River outlet and the highway the two most important matters before the city at this time. He would do all in his power to fur-"Good afternoon, Alfred," said the these projects. He had never before sought public office but he had been identified with matters of public interest. If the voters apship. I-I didn't recognize your proved of his record, he asked for their support at the polls.

James Black James Black explained that he "I want a few words with you, was seeking election as an alderman, first, because he felt that la-"Well-really, my lady-I don't bor was entitled to representation cause, as a resident of 20 years standing, he had been closely identified with civic affairs. The workers, particularly through the fishing industry, had been the back-Alfred produced a key and op-bone of this city and, whatever fuened the door. Bundle passed in ture developments might be would Alfred, troubled and sheepish, fol- continue to be. As for himself, he lowed her. Bundle sat down and believed that he had acquired a looked straight at the uncomfort- fair knowledge of civic government and of the present and future needs of the city. If elected, he would endeavor to merit the confidence 'I suppose you know," she said and respect of the citizens as a Approves Bylaws Before bringing the meeting to a close, Mayor McMordie said that he ratification. As for the sewer by-"I'm not talking of the gambling law, the overexpenditure had already been incurred and would have were entitled to the completion of the McClymont Park road and bridge. He advised the ratepayers that it would be to their best interests to pass the bylaws and spread the cost over a period of

TA COLVER COLLER

The following is from a Honolulu paper:

"That Fred van Werkhoven's work is appreciated in his native land is proven by the publication in an important magazine devoted to art, poetry and music in Holland, called 'De Nieuwe Gids,' of several of his songs. There are two exquisite little things, setting to music the words of the Cana dian poetess, Pauline Johnson. The poems are taken from her book. 'Flint and Feather,' and are called. 'The Cedar Trees have sung their Vesper Hymn' and 'Goodbye.' Oth-

"To have one's compositions accepted by Breitkopf and Hartel, is something of an honor in itself, for they publish only the best. Recently the New York house of this firm has published two short ancient style; and a critic says that 'he has accomplished the dif-

T. W. Falconer, well known Alice aboard the Catala this morning he will spend a vacation with Mrs. Falconer and family, who are in residence in the south.

MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY TWO SHOWS 7 and 9 p.m.

Paul Page, Lola Lane and Henry B. Walthall

IN THE ALL-TALKING MELODRAMA

"SPEAKEASY"

Showing the Night Life of New York.

ALL-TALKING COMEDY—"THE LION'S ROAR" Paramount Sound News Sound Novelty

Admission, 20c and 65c

CANADIAN NATIONAL STEAMSHIPS

Prince Rupert DRYDOCK

SHIPYARD OPERATING G. T. P. 20,000-TON FLOATING DRYDOCK Engineers, Machinists, Boilermakers, Blacksmiths, Pattern

Our Plant Is Equipped to Handle All Kinds of MARINE AND COMMERCIAL WORK PHONES 43 AND 385

Makers, Founders, Woodworkers, Etc.

ELECTRIC AND ACETYLENE WELDING

DEMAND

"Rupert Brand"

"THE DAINTIEST BREAKFAST FOOD." Smoked Daily by

Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., Ltd. PRINCE RUPERT, B.C.

SAVE MONEY! Try C. C. Ketchum's Minehead Coal

Save 10 per cent in weight and buy our coal, which is always under cover and full weight. Egg, 1-inch to 3-inch$12.50 Stove, 3-inch to 6-inch$12.75 Furnace Lump$13.50 WE CAN SUPPLY Telkwa Lump

Wellington Lump $14.50 SEE-SEE KETCHUM & CO., LTD.

LINDSAY'S Phone 68

Cartage, Warehousing, and Distributing. Team or Motor Service Coal, Sand and Gravel

We Specialize in Pianc and Furniture Moving.

PHONE 575 BESNER BLOCK

DENTIST

Coal? Coal?

to put in your winter supply. EDSON and CASSIDY-WELLING-TON in any quantities. Also Flour, Hay, Grain and Feed.

Prince Rupert Feed Co PHONES 58 AND 558

TELEPHONE 657

VALENTIN DAIRY FOR SKEENA BRAND Creamery Butter & Cottage Cheese

FRESH PASTEURIZED MILK AND CREAM DAILY

Early Delivery Throughout the City

