

Smothering and Fainting Spells
Everything Would Turn Black

Mrs. Andrew Black, Harcourt, N.B., writes:—"I had been troubled with smothering and fainting spells and everything in front of me would turn black, and I would fall down in faint and be unconscious for several minutes. I did not know what to do, until one day I was reading where Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills had helped so many people and decided I would give them a trial. I used four boxes and found they help me wonderfully."

G. Gilbert, engineer of the federal radiotelegraph branch, after a visit to the Digby Island station on official duties, sailed last night on the Cardena for Alert Bay.

The "Twenty Years Ago" column of the Vancouver Province says that "A junction will be effected next week between two Grand Trunk Pacific Railway parties now engaged in making a preliminary survey of the route between Vancouver and Port George. They will meet on the upper Fraser."

The Legislative Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, will be asked by the Chamber to recommend what to do with a proposal made by the Montreal Chamber of Commerce for a more equitable system of taxing public utilities companies. It was referred to them at a meeting of the local chamber last night.

C. E. Cadden, operator and line-man at Second Cabin and formerly located at Haysport, will arrive in Prince Rupert next month from the north to take over the position of bookkeeper in the local office of the Government Telegraphs, succeeding Miss Irene Bourassa, who has resigned from the service and who left this week for her home in Vancouver.

The Chamber of Commerce last night passed on to the city council with a recommendation for action the proposal of the committee of the Chamber that the city should apply for $8,750 additional funds from the Provincial Government out of the joint fund set aside for that purpose; and that the money might be expended on the construction of the new road to the floats.
