PIONEERS CELEBRATE

Twentieth Anniversary of Incorporation Marked With Successful Social Affair

The twentieth anniversary of Prince Rupert's incorporation was celebrated by the Prince Rupert Pioneers' Association last night with a highly successful card party and dance in the Moose Hall. The attendance far exceeded expectations as some three hundred persons were present. Newer comers to the city joined with the old timers to suitably celebrate the occasion and in many ways it was an outstanding affair.

Decorations of the hall were featured by banners bearing the legend which the association has adopted: "We're Here Because We're Here."

The proceedings opened with playing of cards and, from fifty or more tables, prize-winners were:

Bridge—Ladies' first, Mrs. George Frizzell; second, Mrs. W. M. Brown; men's first, A. A. Connon; second, A. Iverson.

Whist—Ladies' first, Mrs. Jack Christiansen; second, Mrs. A. Martinson; men's first, S. Turner; second, Gus Stromdahl.

The lucky admission ticket was No. 85 which was held by George Geddes who carried off a $5 gold piece.

During the serving of refreshments, there was an enjoyable program of music and novelties. Misses Beryl Birch and Adelia Thuber, in quaint costumes, gave a delightful little sketch from "The School for Scandal." Mrs. Jarvis H. McLeod sang in her usual sweet voice "My Wild Irish Rose" and "She Loves Me So," with Mrs. C. E. Cullin accompanying. Comic songs by J. Melville, with Mrs. J. S. Black as accompanist, proved very entertaining. The final number on the program consisted of several pretty dancing exhibitions by pupils of Miss Nan Craig.

By the time the dance started, the crowd had swelled considerably and the spacious floor was well nigh covered. Tunesome music was played by the Premier Orchestra and dancing kept up until 2 a.m. in full swing.

Gillis Royer was master of ceremonies for whist, G. W. Johnstone for bridge, and Fred Wesch for the dance.

Mrs. J. E. Jack was general convener for the whole affair.

Miss E. M. Earle and Mrs. A. J. Galland were members of the reception committee.

The committee in charge of refreshments consisted of Mrs. Jas. Morrison, Mrs. H. B. Eastman, Mrs. S. V. Cox, Mrs. O. A. Johnson, Mrs. N. Mussallem and Mrs. J. M. Viereck.

The men's committee comprised G. W. Johnstone, president of the Pioneers' Association, A. O. Franks, secretary, P. W. Anderson, F. W. Hart, Fred Wesch, H. B. Eastman, J. G. Viereck, J. E. Jack, John Murray, W. J. Thomas, Gillis Royer and Jack Cobb.

GAY NOTE IN STYLES

Chiffon Lace and Tulle Are Spring Edict of Paris

PARIS, March 11:—Paris spring styles for evening hours strike the ladies-be-gay note.

"If," says Paris, "life is real and life is earnest, put on your feminine frippery at night and forget it." Feminine frippery naturally suggests trillity. Chiffon lace and tulle are in ascendency with rich stained-metal brocaded chiffon and gay printed taffeta much in evidence. Ankles are definitely in eclipse. Even toes disappear occasionally behind swirls of wide chiffon panels which trail and hemlines which only manage to clear the floor by a whisper.

Spring evening silhouettes are straighter than those of winter, with soft draping around the waistline, or softening capes of boleros which make normal waistlines less difficult to wear.

Dance and dinner dresses continue to show exaggerated décolletés, some of the prettiest being literally backless to the waistline, except for miniature shoulder capes which split up the centre.

There are décolleté evening wraps as well, with adjustable collars which can be worn exposing bare shoulders or draped around the neck.

Evening wraps nearly all are hip-length. Evening ensembles of prin-

If You Are Considering An Automobile

The following are a few concrete reasons why people

TURN TO CHEVROLET

The sensationally low price. The appearance, durability and comfort of the car. The economical operating cost. There is always a good resale value for a Chevrolet. Chevrolet is the chief competitor of cars priced two and three hundred dollars higher. The safety and ease of driving makes the Chevrolet a favorite with ladies.

ted chiffon, with fur lined cape-jackets to match, are new. The same idea is carried out in lace or satin. Colored long gloves are widely shown and dressmakers place insistence on jewelry.

Mrs. K. E. Birnie, who has been a visitor in the city for the past week, will return by tomorrow morning's train to her home in Smithers.

Man in the Moon

Instead of learning where Salt Lake City is on the map children now learn where it is on the radio dial.

"Are you looking for something in men's wear?" said the polite shopwalker to a harassed-looking customer in a big store.

"Certainly not," was the hasty reply. "I'm looking for something in women's attire. I've lost my wife."

Playing one of those old-fashioned games with forfeits, and the girl had been ordered to give the young man ten kisses.

"Let's see," said Jessie, pausing for breath, "that's seven, isn't it?"

"Only six," corrected Freddie.

"Seven, I think."

"No, six."

"Seven!"

"Six!"

"Look here," said the girl, wearily, "sooner than have any argument, we had better start all over again."

"If you haven't a ticket for this boy, you'll have to buy one," said the man at the theatre door. "Indeed I won't," said the irate female. "How old is he?" inquired the man at the door. "Ask him yourself, I never saw him before," returned the I. F.

Prince Rupert is pretty well organized. All the city needs is a flying club to complete the list. There seem to be plenty of high flyers here.

"The country produces great men." Yes, so does the maternity ward.

Man can do many things but he can't undress by just bending over and shaking himself.

SKOG CASE ADJOURNED

Prosecution Evidence and Some Defense Testimony Heard Yesterday

Hearing of crown evidence was completed yesterday afternoon before Stipendiary Magistrate H. F. McLeod in the case of Ole Skog, charged with fishing for herring within the prohibited area at Pearl Harbor without permission of the fisheries inspector, and, after two defence witnesses had been heard, the hearing was adjourned until tomorrow afternoon when Skog himself and probably other defence witnesses will take the stand.

Witnesses for the prosecution yesterday were James McIvor, captain of the patrol boat Rividis, which took Skog and his boat, the Fredelia, into custody; M. A. Cameron, engineer, and W. E. Bailey, a member of the crew of the Rividis; James Boyd, acting inspector of fisheries, and James Strachan, fisheries officer. Witnesses for the defence heard yesterday were G. Welle and K. Siatta, members of the crew of the defendant's boat.

E. F. Jones is prosecuting the case on behalf of the fisheries department while Milton Gonzales is acting as defence counsel.

Twenty Years Ago

March 11, 1910

An expedition is being organized in Seattle by an expert diver to raise the steamer Islander which sank ten years ago in 320 fathoms of water in Stephens Passage near Juneau while bound for Seattle with $2,000,000 worth of Klondyke gold in her strong box.

Capt. Weiding of the Seattle fishing steamer Weiding Bros. reports finding a new reef far to the south of the rocky ledges which extend from Cape St. James at the south end of Queen Charlotte Islands.

The Dominion government will, it is expected, complete the approach to the Stewart wharf about the middle of next month.
