PRINCE GEORGE

It is reported that the Prince George Citizen may change hands in the near future. Jack Daniels, the well known newspaperman, who recently returned to town after having been in the German prison camps, is negotiating with the present proprietors for the purchase of the plant and business.

The Prince George Hospital is going sadly in the hole. Accounts outstanding total $1,350, while the bills owing by the institution are over $4,000. The city has been asked to help the institution but some of the aldermen are not inclined to do so until some collections are made to reduce the large amount of accounts owing to the hospital.

The aldermen of Prince George have voted themselves an extra bonus of $150 for the year 1919.

According to the Prince George Citizen there is a lot of dissatisfaction expressed at the way the recent tax sale was conducted. It alleges that the city officials ran the sale to suit and benefit themselves and disgusted the public.

HAZELTON

The thermometer was down to 8 above zero last week.

A Chinaman who robbed the local laundry was given three months last week by Magistrate Hoskins.

The Hazelton Hospital Board has endorsed a policy being advocated by the B. C. Hospital Association providing for free treatment in all hospitals.

A skating rink is going to be started in a short time and committees are now making plans to that end.

School Inspector Paterson was a visitor here recently and made very favorable reports on the management and progress at the local schools.

Miss Pearl V. Wall has resigned as assistant superintendent of the local hospital and will visit her brother at Telkwa before proceeding to the Coast. She has made a host of friends during her stay. Miss Wall's successor will arrive from the south in the course of a week or so.

Some of the local Indians went on a rampage lately on the glad news that Gun-a-noot had been acquitted and had also recovered from pneumonia. They will greet the notorious outlaw in no mean manner when he returns to settle down amongst them after his long exile.

Local News Notes

Dawson has already had twenty below zero this season which wasn't much worse than it was at Endako last week.

Miss Florence Moore, who graduated from the Prince Rupert General Hospital last year, is now nursing in one of the Seattle Hospitals.

Mrs. Jos. Graham, of Cedarvale, recently passed away in Vancouver. She was the aunt of Don Graham, of the Thompson Hardware and of Hulda Graham, stenographer in te forestry office.

Recent reports brought from Vancouver state that diptheria is spreading with alarming rapidity in certain sections of the city. Measures against a general epidemic are being strictly carried out.

Miss Edythe Stewart, of the local nursing staff, who was expected to return here last Thursday changed her mind at the last minute and decided to spend all her holidays in the south. She is now expected home Saturday.

The debate at the University of B.C. last week in which J. Mitchell was one of the debaters for the negative side was lost by that side. Miss Katherine Pillsbury has entered debating circles in the Women's Literary Society. Miss Laura Pim, of the local postoffice staff, was a visitor at the college last week. She was welcomed by many Rupert students in the institution.

C. E. Bloomfield, of Sunnyside, is in town.

Make Your Cake With It

Mrs. John Adlen was at an afternoon tea where a particularly nice cake was served. She got the recipe next day and instead of using fresh milk she used Pacific as she does in all her baking.

Mrs. Adlen says it came out so well she sent a piece to her tea hostess who telephoned to know what she had done to make the cake so fine in texture.
