Easter Concert Much Enjoyed

Terrace United Church Held Successful Entertainment on Monday Evening

TERRACE, April 23:-An Easter concert was given in Knox United Church on Monday evening which delighted a capacity audience. In opening the program, Rev. H. T. Allen paid a tribute to the efforts of Mrs. A. Holmwood, Mrs. J. Smith and Mrs. H. T. Allen, who were responsible for the numbers presen-

The Primary and Beginners Department of the Sunday School gave a descriptive number, "The Awakening of the Flowers." Two of their number, Jessie Llewellyn and Mary Little, recited. The Golden Keys were heard to advantage in a lullaby, "Sleep, Baby, Sleep" also "Little Hearts and Voices," and a model meeting, explanatory of Golden Key work. Four girls also sang a two-part song. Two duets PRESS MORE were acceptably rendered by C. Finwere acceptably rendered by C. Finter and Rev. H. T. Allen, entitled "Oh, that I had wings" and "When My Life with the Tide Goes Out." The C. G. I. T. chorus, "In the Springtime" revealed much talent. The "Live Wires" group gave a beautiful costumed interpretation in song and gesture of the hymn "Abide With Me." The last number titled "Her Easter Choice," ably took the form of a debate on the Monday's train. given by the senior group of C. G. resolution "That the Press Exerts I. T. The singing by the whole a Greater Influence Than the Pulaudience of one verse of the hymn pit." The matter was well thought the evening's program to a close.
