Took Two to Nil Victory From Canadian Legion in

Playing a swinging ball game, Prince Rupert Athletic Club proved, slightly the best team in last night's Gilhuly Cup football game and defeated Canadian Legion by a score of two to nil. That is not saying that the Canadian Legion did not have a full share of the play, particularly in the first half when there was no score, play being well divided and up and down the field all the

Sam Currie's men got away in the second half, however, and succeeded in scoring their two countersthe first by Nick Chenoski in a scrimmage around the goal mouth and the second by J. McKay on a free kick on the penalty line. Johnson Smith was given little chance to save in either case. On the whole, it was a good game of soccer and the Legion was unlucky to lose by more than one goal Quite a good-sized crowd of fan:
