Money We Subscribe Comes Back to Us.

Shortly before the Victory Loan campaign was started many of the eastern municipalities sold out their 1918 bonds at a premium and got ready to buy the new ones. As municipalities do not pay income tax it was no advantage holding bonds with that feature in them. This year's bonds were equally good.

It is possible that other municipalities in the west may do the same.

Prince Rupert should do everything possible for the loan as the city gets back many times the amount subscribed. Much of it is to be spent in shipbuilding in this city. We cannot expect the Government to order ships here unless we are prepared to do our part in putting up for the national expenses.

Are Deserting Sinking Ship.

The criticism of the Grand Trunk Pacific deal and of the prohibition measure by the Conservative caucus at Ottawa seems to indicate that since the total rout of the Unionist forces in the Ontario election the Conservatives are running for cover and are already taking independent action apart from the Unionist organization.

Electing Hon. Simon Tolmie in Victoria in the way in which they did was like damning with faint praise. Tolmie is the strongest candidate the Unionists could get. He is popular everywhere. His character and standing in the community are above reproach. He had no political sins to atone for. He appeals to both Conservatives and Liberals for he has never belonged to either party, so far as anyone knows, before the Union was formed, and yet in spite of this a candidate imported from New Westminster, a man who could not be elected in his home town, and polled over five thousand votes. It was really an overwhelming victory for the opposition.

The other by-elections did not turn out very well. Not a supporter was elected for the Government out of the four seats. Naturally there were signs of dissatisfaction among the chief backers of the Union Government. Unionism having failed they must turn to something that would make a stronger appeal to the people. Conservatism could not be worse and it might be better. They would turn to the old Conservatism and see how the people like it. Hence "a strong feeling" against the Government policy at the Conservative caucus.

Colonel McMordie at Board of Trade.

The speech of Lieut.-Col. McMordie at the Board of Trade luncheon Wednesday was one that caused a great deal of favorable comment from those who heard it. It shows that the Colonel had made a study of the social unrest and was prepared to advocate dealing with it in a somewhat radical manner. It set everyone thinking. While hardly anyone would agree with the suggestions in their entirety, the address showed an attempt to deal with a big question in a courageous manner. Too radical for some, the proposals are also too conservative for others. This was bound to be. The great thing about the address was that it provided food for thought. After the experience of Wednesday the Prince Rupert Board of Trade will be glad to hear from Col. McMordie at any time.

"I HAVE PROVED"

Zam-Buk invaluable for eczema, both in the case of my baby and myself," says Mrs. L. Bonin of West Arichat, N.S. She adds: "Baby's skin was badly broken out, but repeated applications of Zam-Buk entirely cured it."

"In my own case, I had eczema on my hands, which made it very inconvenient for me to do my housework. Particularly was this so, as it aggravated the trouble up to put my hands in water. By using Zam-Buk, however, I soon got relief, and it was not very long before every trace of the trouble had disappeared. I really think no home should be without Zam-Buk."

Zam-Buk is equally good for all skin injuries. All dealers 50c. box.
