protected by a higher tariff,

while the Liberal government took the opposite ground of de-sed too far and that Canadians

THE DAILY NEWS

PRINCE RUPERT - BRITISH COLUMBIA

Published Every Afternoon, Except Sunday, by Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenue H. F. PULLEN - - - Managing-Editor

the Engel Him

DAILY EDITION

Contract rates on application. Advertising and Circulation Telephone98

Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations

Editor and Reporters' Telephone86

ELECTION NEARLY OVER

By the time this reaches our readers most of them will Monday. Mr. Manson, who was in; answer to the great needs of have voted and out of town readers will not receive the his usual fine oratorical fettle, markets of the New England States growing Canada all Mr. Bennett paper until the elections are over and the results known. Whichever wins we shall have the satisfaction of knowing it was a good man elected. It will then be for us to get at the polls tomorrow and engaged coast. Obviously a policy that sui- Macdonald and get my policy." behind our man, no matter which party he belongs to, and in a trenchant denunciation of ted the manufacturer would injure Premier King told the railway the Liberals and "blast his way ". unite for the forwarding of the interests of the consti- Hon. R. B. Bennett, K.C., Hon. H. other industries, and the speaker commission to get busy and rectify into the markets of the world." I riangle I our tuency.

No matter which wins it may be said that it has been a leaders for their statements in re- could be devised that would help against British Columbia, and the ing, and Mr. Bennett's attitude was No matter which wins it may be said that it has been a gard to the achievements of the all. good sporting contest. Both sides have worked hard for Liberal government and the con- In this situation the Consertheir respective candidates and they have done so in a dition of Canada today. His ad- vatives took the stand that wealgood humored way, free from rancour. Tonight all will be dress was punctuated with fre- thy interests should be further able to meet and greet each other, feeling that there has quent rounds of enthusiastic apbeen nothing of which to be ashamed.

NORTHERN B. C. FIRST

In all that we do and say let us try to remember to put Rupert. Elections, he pointed out, tection. the interests of Northern B. C. first. Doubtless that is were not decided either by steadwhat the voters have done today. We may differ as to how best that interest is served but we must give each other by those in between who had no should shut her doors to other credit for believing they voted in the best interests of the were guided not by political pre- market for themselves, a policy railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the best of the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the bargaining countries and retain the home railways were now in a prosperous had got the bargaining countries and retain the home

Now it will be best for us to forget politics and consider ment in deciding who were best nation. Canada produced 400 milthe situation in which we find ourselves and the problems able to govern. Mr. Manson re- lion bushels of wheat and used less to be solved in order to keep this part of the country well viewed the political alignments than 100 million. A world market ternal and external affairs, Mr. every one of them. To do this would market to the fore.

CAMPAIGN ENDED SATURDAY

With the Daily News the campaign ended Saturday inate their Canadianism. There from other cuontries where the sentiments and position in exter- raw material, but also imported raw night with the printing of an extra edition to give the peo- were certain outstanding facts in standard of living was much lower nal affairs the boy who refused material from the U.S. A. and then ple of Prince Rupert an opportunity to read the speeches the present campaign which were than in Canada. To raise the tariff to part with the apron strings as shipped them back the finished of Hon. A. M. Manson and Mrs. Paul Smith. These speeches are reprinted today in order that those who did not get the special number may read them if they wish. of the present administration. They will have only an academic value now and have no bearing whatever on the result of the contest.

Mrs. Paul Smith of Vancouver Upholds Women's Side of Case harmony between and the Dominion.

Address of Lady In Liberal Cause Was One of Outstanding Features of Final Rally For Olof Hanson Tonight

(Reprinted from Saturday's Extra.

Stressing many items of legislation which had been en- the Liberal and Conservative paracted by the Mackenzie King government whereby "causes ties. The speaker told of the Mar- the further burden suggested by out. Conservatives were then of misery had been removed and the causes of happiness itimes with their interest in the Conservatives would be ruinous. encouraged," Mrs. Paul Smith of Vancouver, at tonight's _____ Conservative and Liberal Policies public meeting, made a stirring appeal for the support of less in taxes than they had done Dealing with the Liberal propowomen and home makers in the cause of Liberalism at the previously. If for nothing else, the sals of intra-Empire trade, Mr. federal election Monday. Mrs. Smith was given a warm record of this government in having Manson rose to great eloquence reception when she rose to speak. She proved herself to be reduced the cost of living and taxa- that made a profound impression. one of the most impressive and eloquent of women public polls. speakers who have ever been heard here. She spoke for Great work had also been done in a policy that would solve 100 per about half an hour and her address was punctuated with the increasing of the pensions for cent of the difficulties, and yet erais in addition to the railway in a pleasing manner. well acquainted as any with the istration. tuency and press for their accom- that a woman was a "person."

constituency.

Accomplishments Of

Administration

the fulfilment of the needs of his had brought about in the way of er or not they approved of this. disseminating literature designed Would Support Canada had been going through to reduce the maternal death rate Olof Hanson a period of stress during the last and infant mortality. Particularly "If you people approve of all this two months, Mrs. Smith asserted, in the more remote districts was government has done and its pol-It was right and proper that the this service of value; welfare work icies for the future, all I would say people of Canada should desire to through the placing of women in is: on Monday look for the name know of the accomplishments of service to assist new settlers, par- of 'Hanson' on the ballot paper this government and also what were ticularly women; the placing of mark against it a good strong cross its intentions for the future, its fu- hospital and medical supplies on and deposit it in the ballot box. ture plans and policies. It was cer- the free list. Assistance to technical Then you will have done your bit had made many essary. The King government had ning had demonstrated his out that this administration had a list and he had made many essary. tain that this administration had a education was something that aided towards Canada's progress and splendid policy for the future. If a young man or woman in entering prosperity."

the people approved of its past re- the trades. The policy of the Lib- The meeting was presided over been deprived of their natural re- all the advantages granted to cord and its future policy, the next eral government had been to reduce by Col. S. P. McMordie who made sources and the money received Great Britain Mr. Manson said the lace to the aged, while the Liberal had his whole stake in this district logical step was to support it at the the cost of living, as evidenced in suitable remarks in opening, urg- had gone to Ottawa. B.C. had given people of Canada would have been polls and this, she believed, was the Dunning budget, by placing ing support for the Mackenzie King forty miles of land along the rail ingrates not to remember the what the people of Canada inten- everyday necessities of life either government and Olof Hanson as way and the valuable Peace River nourishing Canada had received Mr. Manson told of the great benefree of duty or on a low tariff. | its representative. Charles P. Ba- block as the price of getting the from the Motherland. Britain was fit coming to returned soldiers Canada, and he could be depended to the referred to the second to the great bene- less which had be depended to the referred to the second to the great bene- less which had be depended to the referred to the second to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be depended to the great bene- less which had be Mrs. Smith referred to the ac- lagno's orchestra played musical Canadian Pacific Railway. These Canada's best customer. To con- from the new act.

Eloquent Address By A. M. Manson at Final Rally Saturday Night of family discontent and today in favor of British goods in order

Doctrines Promulgated By Bennett Would Be Ruinous to Country—British Preference Vital to Canada's Trade

(Reprinted from Saturday's Extra.

In what was considered by many who heard it the greatest fighting speech in the course of the whole present federal election campaign, in Skeena riding, A. M. Manson K. of the conservatives and confu-C., former attorney-general of British Columbia, and M. sion in the U.S. by transferring and the speaker thought they made it necessary for him to leave L. A. for Omineca, made a stirring plea in the Capitol $300,000.000 worth of business Theatre before a crowded audience tonight for the support from the United States to Great Britain. This, said Mr. Manson. of the Mackenzie King Liberal government, one of the fin- was the great policy on which est administrations Canada had ever had, through citizens Mackenzie King appealed to the of Prince Rupert voting for Olof Hanson at the polls on people for support today, yet in States to Great Britain was the It is understood that the local

In opening, Mr. Manson expressed his pleasure at appearing manding that the great consumagain before an audience in Prince ing public was entitled to prodefinite party affiliations and who countries and retain the home judice but by reason and discern- that could bring nothing but stag- condition. hesitation in voting for the return put our farmers on an unfair basis Mackenzie King has taken

Three Requests for Progress

That Canada should progress there were necessary, first a Can-

In view of the deversified initimes, Quebec and Ontario, the tion and here Mr. Manson refer-plause as she scored telling points of the pieces of legislation that this War. The old age pension scheme icy worthy of the name must not government had enacted to the end was another material benefit. In be sectional. Comparing the vision It was a great pleasure for her to of removing the causes of misery 1926 the Conservatives had made a of the two leaders, Mr. Manson speak in Prince Rupert in support and encouraging the causes of hap-strong stand against this, saying said Mr. King had acted on of Olof Hanson whom she had piness. The interest that women that the scheme was futile and none principle of keeping the cost learned from political association were taking in this campaign was of the provinces would take advan- living as low as possible for with him was a fine citizen of Can- a matter of delight to her. She only tage of it. However, seven of the consumer and this great policy representative the Liberal party fairs of the country through parti- veloping industries by encouragehad also honored itself. He was as cipation in government and admin- ment of trade with resultant greater employment. The development problems of this constituency The appointment of a woman of Oriental trade might yet mean through his long association with senator was one of the first acts much even in making Prince Ruthem. He had the proven ability to that the Liberal government had pert a great port. Mrs. Smith laudconsider the needs of the consti- done on the courts having decided ed the principle of British Preference and the closer binding togethplishment. She was sure that he Pieces of legislation directly af- er of the sections of the Empire in would accomplish much in the way fecting the home had included the trade. The people themselves now of legislation for Canada and in health service that the government had the opportunity to say wheth-

Canada, the speaker said.

tions, adjusting his policy in the other products. light of modern progress and in view of the changing needs, and in pursuit of that purpose he had moved for intra-Empire trade with his budget proposals that had created disconsolation in the hearts ruin them the business had in- of Canada." creased so much that stagnant! From 53 trade treaties Canada of competition and would mean stand that we could conduct our the wheat export business. Lumber move for better status, a move in also met competition from Oregon which the Motherland not only and prosper, Mr. Manson declared, and Washington; a high tariff on did not hinder but actually and mill machinery would close the freely assisted. Against these proadian National policy, second, na- Eastern market to our products of posals of appointing our own minharmony between the provinces competition from several countries. tiating our own treaties, Mr. Benterests as represented by the Mar-try. Canadian lead, silver and zinc to accept the hopefulness of Macenters the world market in com- kenzie King that Liberals could prairies and British Columbia, Ca- petition with many countries, in- run their own affairs, and Mr nada's national policy must be cluding Mexico where the standard Bennett had openly objected to the one of compromise and modera- of living is very low. To hold a idea that Canada should have her place it was essential that machi- own affairs in her own charge.

Canada Is In Manhood

> possible, and for these industries $336,000,000 when the war broke tured goods per head of population rowed from the wealthy and exempted the bonds from taxation da, no party could devise or apply That was the heritage left to Lib-King had said it was necessary to cut expenses, it was necessary to increase taxes, and above all was necessary to expand trade. of The first year the Liberals went simply saying he would go back tion of national debt than any na- States protest against their warm admiration for Macdonald, in taxation by the Liberal govern- for the Tories.

he claimed Canada had progres- ment. Great Increase In Trade resented the very thought of a policy that meant living in years situation in a statesmanlike man- pointed to the severe spanking ad- for justice and equity for those emthat are gone and which would ner and had started out to sell ministered to Bennett by the Van- ployed. That is the reason why or mean retrogression that did not Canada's vast resources. These couver Daily Province over the ganized labor is to be found to be meet the aspirations of Canadian trade routes had to be built up, Conservative plans for killing that supporting his government almost people. The solutions of sixty and he took the stand that with treaty. The high price of wheat had unanimously in this campaign. years ago are not good enough for such an adverse balance of trade killed interest in dairying, and then against Great Britain he would the big plants had found that milk great tribute to Olof Hanson, the Internal economic conditions in increase the British preference. He powders were more profitable than Liberal candidate. Mr. Hanson, he the Dominion were taken under saw our great wheat surplus and butter, the result being that great said, was a good Canadian. He had review and the three taken under saw our great wheat surplus and butter, the result being that great said, was a good Canadian. He had review review, and the threat of the moved to provide a market in the importations of butter became nec- come here and from a small beginfederation were recalled. At that treaties that had the result time the prairie provinces had doubling the Dominion's trade. In bill despite the objections of Tories great and successful business. He complishment of this government selections and there were moving conditions had created ill feeling, tinue paying in gold would soon Mrs. Smith then explained that which resulted in the people now pictures before the opening and af- and the provincial governments ruin her, and in this condition it was her intention to point to some having to pay $113,000,000 a year ter the close of the meeting. had gone to the Conservative gov- and in the desire to forge still ernment at Ottawa for redress, stronger the links of the Empire, only to be refused. Mackenzie King Mackenzie King had taken the had started in to rectify this state step of increasing the preference all our grievences had been remov- that the balance would be closer and in order that out of the cre-Mackenzie King had always la- dits built up it would be possible bored to bring about better condi- to sell more Canadian wheat and Rev. R. M. Stevenson Relinguish

Blasting Policies of Bennett

tremendous increases in trade with of First Presbyterian Church for other countries, which showed Can- less than two months, announced to ada selling millions of dollars more his congregation at yesterday's than she bought. Mr. Bennett and services that certain unforeseen Mr. Brady would not tell about this circumstances had arisen which should. Bennett had said, and his Prince Rupert. Dr. Stevenson will speakers still say, that the prefer- be leaving this week for Honoldin ence means nothing, but Mr. Man- where he will pay a visit. Mrs. Sta. son considered the matter of $300,- venson has left for her home on the 000,000 turned from the United prairies. a finest gesture of loyalty, and was church will remain closed during particularly strong in his condem- the months of August and Septemmade out an impressive defence of the manufacturing of Ontario, the had offered was to turn his back nation of Mr. Bennett's statement per. Dr. Stevenson's departure is a the record of the government agriculture of the prairies, and the on the people and say, "I will take that he would abolish the British matter of great regret for the which was seeking a new mandate diverse industries of the Pacific you back sixty years to Sir John preference, that he would abro- whole congregation. gate all trade treaties made by H. Stevens and other Conservative contended that no one policy the freight rates working so hard Trade could not be wen by blastspeaker claimed that instead of akin to Shylock and his demand for the discontent existing under Con- a pound of flesh. Mr. Manson said servative administration and in there was more than dollars and Group Numbers 42 Persons on Only which the Conservatives had re- cents in life; sentiment surely had fused to act, there was now the a place. "Surely we owe something happy situation of Canada exist- to the Motherland, and the British ing as a single unit in happiness preference is the Liberal way of of the Canadian National Railways and all working in harmony. The saying we do owe her something freight rates saving alone had and that Liberals are not prepared amounted to $30.000,000 in five to overlook all the past and cry: The speaker told of the claims years and while the railways had 'Pay, pay!' The spirit of Bennett fast Liberals or Conservatives but of Conservatives that Canada complained that this cut would this regard will never be the spirit by $153,000,000, yet in face of this Mr. Bennett had made the terrible Continuing his treatment of in- statement that he would abrogate and economic realities and possi- must be found for the surplus. In Manson stated that Canada had stamp Mr. Bennett as crazy. Referbilities in the dealing with which the world market they met Argen- won manhood in 1914. Before that ring to the Conservative complaint ler than usual this year, there beevery voter should refrain from al- time wheat produced under a very time Canadians had not found about exporting raw material, Mr. lowing party affiliations to dom- low wage scale, and they met grain themselves, and he likened their Manson said Canada did export incontrovertable and these inde- against the implements used in he grew up. "Before that time our products. We buy 50% more than pendent electors should have no the harvesting of wheat would treaties were made by London, but we import in raw material." The the speaker deplored the consequence of Mr. Bennett's statement, be- motices: that we would have to go out of business and he made his great cause Canada must import rubber, cotton and a great many things it announcements $2. does not grow. Our trade with the United States is against us. We buy about $1.25 for every $1 we sell them, but in the days when the tionhood of Canada, and, third, the forest. Canned salmon meets isters to foreign nations and nego- 1911 we bought $2.25, $2.50 and as high as $2.85 from them for every A high tariff as proposed by Con- nett and other Conservatives had $1 we sold them. In this respect servatives would ruin that indus- strenuously objected. They refused the Dominion under Liberal rule has displayed an increase that should make Canadians proud."

Proud Government Record

Referring to Conservative proposals of high tariff, Mr. Manson said red to the differences in policy of nery be kept as low in price as The debt of Canada was only Canada exported more manufacin than any other nation in the world charge. When they got through This was an achievement that Canada could not vote against but should bring pride to Canadians. the speaker did not blame them and he considered it time that Canfor all this. Canada was in the war ada as a manufacturing nation progressive outlook for the future and were willing to pay, but they should put the nursing bottle away. paid everything with money bor- The speaker drew a very humorous picture of the excitement of Mr. Bennett over tariffs, and mentioned that while Mr. Stevens had a the progress of Canada for 60 years great deal of fun Mr. Bennett had mess left by Tories. Mackenzie a regular musical festival with never fit in with the conditions castiron pipes and flowers. The today, fact was that in diverting cut flowers from the U.S.A. to the West Indies a trade amounting to close upon a million dollars was turned into Empire channels, and he could appointment of Tom Moore to the behind, but in every year since not see what Conservatives had board of directors of the Canad there was a big surplus and the against the Empire when they proada. He had been honored with the hoped that the time was not far nine provinces had now entered the would bring about a strong and a local control of the language of the language of the local control of the language of th nomination as Liberal candidate for distant when women would take scheme. The Liberal government more unified Empire. On the other consider the control of t Skeena but in choosing him as their even a more active part in the af- had also been instrumental in de- hand Mr. Bennett had failed to only fourteen surpluses since Con- other nations. Mr. Manson in giving produce a policy and had dismis- federation and seven of these the great approval placed by Brised his obligations to the Cana- were under Mackenzie King. Can- tishers on the King-Dunning buddian in the matter of a lead by ada had paid off a larger propor- get and in mentioning the United publication, as deputy minister of to the policy of Sir John A. Mac- tion in the war. Mr. Manson de- business loss said there was some donald. While the speaker had tailed the many reductions made hope for Conservatives but little

> Mr. Manson scored heavily in repudiating claims by Conservatives his soul is a square deal to the Mackenzie King had faced the over the Australian treaty, and working classes, his attitude solld of finally passed the old age pension standing ability by building up a and this was proving a great sol- had invested everything here; he government had done more for the his cause was therefore our cause returned soldier than any other na- and he would join with Mackenzie tion in the war. In this connection King in carrying out the great pol-

> > Premier King's Great Record The attainment of nationhood, presentation.

Pastorship of First Presbyterian Church

Mr. Manson then reviewed all the Rev. Dr. R. M. Stevenson, pastor

About Half as Large as Usual

The anunal Triangle Tour party onsisting principally of people from Southern British Columbia arrived in the city by special train at 7 o'clock last evening and will sail this afternoon on the Prince George for Vancouver. Fine weather favored an interesting day's visit rail, visits had been paid at Kamloops, Jasper Park, Prince George and Smithers as well as other points before arriving here.

The Triangle Tour party is smaling only 42 persons in the group.

SCALE OF CHARGES

The following is the scale ? of charges made for reading !

Marriage and Engagement *

Birth Notices 50c. Funeral Notices $1. Cards of Thanks, $2. Funeral Flowers 10c per * good internal relations between the provinces, the tremendous increase in trade, big reductions in taxation, important reductions in national debt, increased preference t the Motherland, and the diversion of trade from the United States to Great Britain-these, said Mr. Manson, created a record the people that was the progress of Mackenzie King in the past and that was his of Canada and the British Empire. That great record was the policy of Mackenzie King, but Mr. Bennett said he would, if elected, retrace and take up a policy that could

Mr. Manson made brief mentio of Premier King's record in connec tion with labor and the working classes. The Fair Wage Act and the National Railways had been amon the notable achievements of the Liberal government in this regard. Premier King personally had played a large part in labor affairs, first as editor of the government's labor labor when that department was first established and as minis of labor under Sir Wilfrid Laurier. "His whole life has a record of conciliation and justice. The essence icies which had meant so much for upon to see that Skeena was not neglected as it had been in the past through the wrong principle of re-