RUPERT FROM ENGLISH EYES

Recently Prince Rupert had a visit from Harold T. Pooley, director of the British Empire Producers organization and some effort was taken by the Chamber of Commerce to give him full information in regard to the city and district and its possibilities. In the journal of the organization "Empire Production and Export" Prince Ru- tant William Kerr, district officer, orities. The claimant is also perpert is specially mentioned twice. In the first Mr. Pooley says:

"The riddle of Prince Rupert is one of the many gigantic problems which Canada will have to work out. Prince Rupert has a deep-water harbor capable of carrying a vast well. amount of shipping. It is far nearer to the Orient than any other North American port. It has a low gradient for its visiting here for the past few are permanently disabled, mentally eastern railway and a consequent ton-mile reduction.
