Twenty Years Ago
In Prince Rupert

February 28, 1910

Soon it is expected steamers will start to arrive daily from Vancouver with heavy loads of passengers. The boom is now on here in full swing.

An indignation meeting was held in the Presbyterian Hall to protest against Prince Rupert's incorporation bill. J. C. McLennan was in the chair and speakers were L. W. Patmore, H. F. McRae, A. M. Manson, T. Y. McKay and W. P. Lynch.

There are only 231 Prince Rupert lots altogether to be sold by the provincial government at the forthcoming auction sale.
