

Man in the Moon

What a good thing love is blind. If it weren't think how high the light bill would be.

There are three ways of dieting. Some diet before meals, others diet during meals and others again diet after meals.

I think I have an artistic temperament. I hate earning a living and paying my bills.

Success would be all right if it did not cost so much in labor, thought and midnight oil.

If there were no noses what would the druggists do for a living?

If men were perfect and women always charming, life would still need an application of the salt duster to make it palatable, and possibly a little vinegar on the salad.

We sent our mayor down south. What'll he get? He'll use his brains and mouth but What'll he get? He'll get promises galore For they'll never make him sore, But he'll get us nothing more That's what he'll get.

Labor is doing its best to prevent matrimony. It wants high wages for single girls.

IRISH ARMY IS OPPOSED

Difficulties Face Effort to Muster 50,000 Volunteer Reserve

DUBLIN, Jan. 25.—Recruiting of the new volunteer reserve army of 50,000 men and officers for the Irish Free State is meeting with considerable opposition.

So far most of the opposition has come from the "young intellectual" class and older Republicans who vividly remember the late civil war and fear what they call a "militarist movement" which may be used to break strikes or keep Irish citizens in subjection.

The authorities, political observers say, are handling the situation with tact. The work of organization is proceeding apace and will undoubtedly be an accomplished fact before much longer.

Most of the trouble so far has centred on the attempts to enroll National University students as officers in the new army. Some of it is undoubtedly sponsored by the secret, illegal Irish Republican army which is still in existence.

Exciting scenes took place at National University College when Free State army officers appeared to enroll students in the officers' training corps. A large number of students objected, the gist of their protest being: "It is not right that the university should be turned into a recruiting office."

After the speeches the students rushed into the room where the army officers were enrolling applicants and threw a number of "stink" bombs.
