TAG DAY IS HELD

L.O.V.E. Is Raising Funds For Benefit of Disabled Veterans and Families

Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, in collaboration with the Canadian Legion and with the assistance of its three subsidiary chapters, is today holding its annual tag day to raise funds for the assistance of disabled veterans of the Great War and their families. The Saturday nearest Armistice Day is usually selected for this tag.

Mrs. John Manson, regent of Municipal Chapter, is in general charge. Queen Mary Chapter conducted the tag this morning. Adair Carss Chapter was in charge during the early part of the afternoon while Hill Sixty Chapter will complete the tag late this afternoon.

Mrs. William Brass and Mrs. W. C. Aspinall were in charge of headquarters at the Canadian Legion building for Queen Mary Chapter this morning. Taggers were Mrs. C. J. Norrington, Velma Thurber, Adelia Thurber, Jean Stamp-Vincent, Dorothy O'Neill, Bill Brass, Pete Brass, Terry Fortune, Catherine Baker, Joan Baker, Billy Williscroft, Annie Kach, Marvina Rowe, Vernon Rowe, Charlie Wilson, Bob Shrub-sall, Maureen Kirkpatrick and Gloria DeWolf.

Mrs. J. A. Teng was in charge at headquarters for the Adair Carss Chapter this afternoon, taggers including Mrs. Vic Houston, Rosie Cox, Hazel Smith, Georgina Lamb, Dorothy O'Neill and Catherine Baker.

Mrs. H. B. Rochester was in charge for Hill Sixty Chapter, taggers including Miss Laura Frizzell, Mrs. B. E. Valde and Miss Gwen Palmer.

Miss Phyllis Harvey, following a tonsil operation in the Prince Rupert General Hospital, is now making satisfactory recovery.

Birthday of Jap Inlet's Grand Old Man Celebrated

JAP INLET, Nov. 8.—The birthday of A. E. Allen, the "Grand Old Man of Jap Inlet," was held at the house of Jas. A. Wanhope.

Mr. Allen, who is now 84 years of age and who at present resides at the Kamloops Home for the Aged, and who previously had resided on Porcher Island for 20 years, is highly esteemed by all who know him. His mining activities, while on Porcher Island, were extensive and later developments along these lines proved Mr. Allen to be a true prophet.

A very pleasant evening was passed and all agreed in wishing Mr. Allen many happy returns of his birthday.

CASE ADJOURNED

After some police evidence had been heard, the case of the Empress Social Club, charged with being the keeper of a gaming house, was adjourned until next Wednesday by Magistrate McClymont in city police court yesterday afternoon. The cases of ten alleged inmates were also adjourned.
