

CHARLIE'S AUNT WAS A SCREAM

Old Classic Play Brought up to Date Last Night by Fisher's Folly Company.

The change of the Fisher's Folly Company to a classic play with a connected theme throughout, was appreciated last night by those who attended the entertainment at the Westholme Theatre. The play is an old one but it was in a new setting last night and had been brought up to date in many particulars. Then there were the dances at intervals, new and different dances and costumes from those used last week. The humor of the play went home to the audience.

Lloyd Clark made an excellent Charlie and the aunt was a scream. Billy Blask as Sir Francis Chesney Cohen was inimitable. The whole play was carried through with that spirit of abandon which speaks of long experience on the stage.

The play will be repeated tonight and there will be a change on Wednesday, vaudeville taking the place of comedy later in the week.

NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

the Editor:—
Canada entered the war to help defend Christian principles. Canada had a pronounced distaste for the theory that might is right. Canada despised cruelty and the barbaric savagery of armed men. Five years of conflict proved that sacrifice brought comfort, that duty done brought happiness. "The happy warrior," was a man who had served his comrades gallantly and well. It has been the world too long to realize the solid truth of the saying that he who loses his life shall find it, that the man who helps others best helps himself.

"Life" of New York is a gay and spirited periodical, not specially "religious," not usually given support of "uplifters," but always virile and honest, and generally reflecting the view of the sophisticated man of the world. Recently it said, "Happiness is a state of mind, and though high wages and dividends, and food and raiment, and shelter, and hot and cold water, and electric light, and satisfactory transportation contribute to produce it, they by no means do the whole job. After we have arranged to be fed, clothed, and all that, we still have to be good, and more than that, to be good to other people, or we won't enjoy even this life."

Is not that exactly the principle taught by the Christian Church? For nearly two thousand years, the eminent folk in the world's history have believed and lived out the Gospel of Jesus. They learned the rudiments of living in the four Gospels. But the crowd generally "looked out for number one." The memory of selfishness has perished from the earth. Their lives were miserable. They refused to learn that a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things he possesseth.

Even today, despite the proofs of the philosophy, which are innumerable, despite the proved emptiness and futility of self indulgence, and the life of mere pleasure, men hesitate to take the only road to happiness. Surely we shall not forget one of the great lessons of the war.

The leaders in the churches are determined to press home to every Canadian mind the Gospel of the Nazarene, as a means of personal happiness, as the only method of securing national progress and prosperity. Five denominations, Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian, are co-operating in a united national campaign. They ask members of the several communions to awaken to their responsibilities as professedly Christian people. They challenge every non-member to a consideration of the gospel they present, and to a decision that it is fundamental to all patriotism and all national prosperity. Who will deny it?

HOW TO BUY A BOND

To the Editor:—
I would like to ask you how a working man can buy a Liberty Bond off a bank, as he cannot get in to the bank to save a dollar less he takes a day off.
Please answer in your paper and oblige a working stiff, who would like to save a dollar before the snow flies.
A. DONALD.

(Douglas Sutherland, secretary of the Victory Loan campaign, says that the Victory Loan office at 523 Third Ave., opposite the G. T. P. ticket office, will be open every evening during the time the campaign is on and bonds may be purchased there.—EDITOR.)
