Women Mayors

Important Section of London Among Places With Female Chief Magistrate

LONDON, Jan. 27:-Nine municipalities in England have women as chief magistrates. One of these is an important section of London, We Deliver to Any Part of the Chelsea, the mayor of which is Lady Phipps, and a large number of her constituents are artists and writers. The Countess of Warwick, noted for her advocacy of the modern doctrines of the Labor Party, is mayor of the town of Warwick. Another prominent member of the Labor Party, Mrs. Ethel E. Wainwright, is mayor of Mansfield. Six other women were successful in the recent municipal elections in England, some of them winning the mayoralty with comparative ease. Four of them ran as Conservatives: Mrs. L. E. Bidwell of Thetford, Mrs. A. F. Broad of Watford, Mrs. Edward Jones of Wrexham, and Mrs. Luard of Hereford.
