CALGARY, June 24:—I. W. C. Solloway and Mills paid fines totalling $250,000 last night and were released on bail aggregating $100,000 pending the hearing of an appeal against the sentences.

Premier Mackenzie King Given Splendid Reception As He Opens Nova Scotia Campaign

SYDNEY, N.S., June 24:—In the heart of the coal and steel district of Cape Breton, Premier King last night opened his election campaign in Nova Scotia. This is the fifth province visited by the Prime Minister so far on his present tour and the meeting was one of the largest and most enthusiastic that he has addressed so far. "I stand here tonight and say to the Maritime Provinces that there is not a major recommendation in the Duncan report, there is not a recommendation of any real significance, that we have not carried out in the letter and the spirit," the Premier said. He asserted that the government had been ridiculed by its Conservative opponents when it proposed to appoint the Duncan commission.

Three Liberals, Two Conservatives In Campaign Going On In City But Independents So Far In Lead

Independents are well in the lead in the Daily News campaign but no one can tell how it will eventually come out. There are three Liberals and two Conservatives entered and much depends upon their activity and the support they get. Whichever group gets the most votes will win the right to the full page advertisement to be taken early in the week following the count and also to a two-column front page article to be submitted by the party managers giving reasons why their candidate should be elected or why their party should be returned to power. This is in addition to the prizes given to the winners of the prizes and the cash commission to those that do not get prizes. Just now the candidates are very close. Those out of town have not yet been heard from since they entered but they must be reckoned with for they have a good field and as good a chance of winning as anyone. Votes may be secured anywhere. There is no limit as long as they come from genuine subscriptions.

SECOND VOLUME OF SIMON REPORT OUT

NAME FOR NEW HOTEL

Thornton Title Suggestion Approved By City Council

At the suggestion of Ald. H. F. Pullen, who brought the matter up on behalf of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, the city council last night approved of a proposal to have the new railway tourist hotel here named after Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways. "Chateau Thornton" is one name that has been suggested although the council decided that the exact form should be left to the hotel department of the railway.

In speaking on the matter, Mayor Orme observed that the definite announcement last week by Col. Hiam that the hotel was to be proceeded with at once must have been a matter for general gratification.

EDITORIAL

WELCOME VISITING YACHTSMEN

The Daily News extends a hearty welcome to visiting yachtsmen who are here today. They have come a long way and we hope they are having the reward of continuous enjoyment. If Prince Rupert can contribute in any small way to the success of the cruise, we feel sure it will be done. Further, we hope that the race will have proved such a success that it may become an annual event.

CRUISER MARATHON ENDS HERE TODAY WITH BOATS MOORING AHEAD OF TIME

Maidie Finishes First With Ten Minute Lead Over Bolinder—Nisbet Comes In Third and Others Follow

With Skipper Jack Powers' Maidie in the lead and apparently the winner of the race, power cruisers in the Seattle-Prince Rupert yacht marathon, which started at Seattle last Friday afternoon, started crossing the finish line and gaily decorated judges' float off the floats of the Prince Rupert Yacht & Rowing Club here at 11:15 this morning, nearly three hours ahead of the theoretical time for the ending of the sprint. Due to their early arrival, the racing boats were not accorded the full reception that had been planned for the appointed hour but officials of the local Yacht Club, together with the president, G. G. Bushby; Mayor C. H. Orme, and other leading citizens, had soon foregathered to welcome them as they moved into the decorated Yacht Club at the conclusion of their long grind. The Boys' Band was soon mustered and Capt. John Muir of the Union Steamship Co.'s freighter Chilkoot, moored at the Big Bay Lumber Co.'s wharf close to the Yacht Club, greeted each boat with siren blasts from the ship's whistle as it moved on to the finish line. Through a half holiday proclaimed by the mayor, (Continued on Page 4.)

India Should Prove Her Own Ability to Govern States The Commission

Development of Responsible Government In That Country Need Not Necessarily Follow British Lines, It Is Declared

LONDON, June 24:—"It has struck us as remarkable that it should be so commonly assumed in India that the development of responsible government must take place on purely British lines." This sentence, from the second volume of the Simon commission report, made public today, provides, perhaps, the keynote of the whole volume. "Our own view," continued the commissioners, "is that, until the provinces of India have established themselves by the working of unitary government as self-governing units, the ultimate form which the central government will take cannot be fully determined. The utmost, therefore, that can be done now is to reduce the rigidity of the structure of the central executive, to make the best possible provision for the introduction of Indians into the executive and to recognize the British system as not the only model to follow."

HER SON IS SHOT

SHELTON, Wash., June 24:—Sol Reed, 28, son of Mark Reed, prominent Southwest Washington lumberman, was shot and killed last night by Arnold George, 35, who committed suicide. The killer is an invalid who is believed to have been mentally unbalanced from suffering caused by an accident on one of Reed's logging operations. He wheeled up to Reed's house in an invalid chair, shot Reed in the groin and then himself in the head.

Mrs. Reed, the mother of the dead man, is at Prince Rupert on the yacht Buccaneer of another son, William, and received word of her son's death at Prince Rupert.

It was moved by Ald. Collart, seconded by Ald. Linzey and unanimously carried to make the donation requested.

The Political Corner

Vol. 1. Tuesday, June 24 No. 12.

Organized Labor In This Contest

For the first time in the history of Canada one of the big railway labor organizations has decided to take sides in a political contest. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers with head office at Toronto has written a circular letter to all its branches throughout Canada suggesting that it would be only fair, in light of what the Liberal Government at Ottawa has done on behalf of labor, to help return to power the Mackenzie King Government.

This letter points out that Mackenzie King took Mr. Peter Heenan, a railroad man and made him Minister of Labor and points out the many things the Liberal Government has been doing toward building up better conditions for the workers of the country.

To quote further from this letter, it says: "I further wish you to know that the Prime Minister himself has always been well disposed toward progressive labor programs, the record of his government 'showing, I think you will agree, that this is true, and it is difficult to see that we could expect any improvement by a change in that office.' and he adds further: "When we have a friendly government I think it 'is well to try to keep it.'"

This is a great compliment paid to Mackenzie King and the Liberal Government when a great labor organization such as this, comprising the railway engineers on all the railway systems of Canada, heartily endorses him and requests that its members may see their way to support him at the coming election.
