WORLD GETTING SMALLER

The world seems to be getting smaller. We become inter- number of teams entered. ested in personalities in any part of the country simply through reading of them in the newspapers and the news collecting agencies of the newspapers miss very little. We know of the doings of Mahatma Gandhi in India, of Miss Amy Johnson in Australia, of Smuts in Africa, of the Christian general in China, of an aviator being lost in the Joan Mellor won their first round Yukon, of Lieut. Bromley's futile attempts at Tokio and match over Lawrence and Mrs. of Babe Ruth's home runs in the States. We keep in close Gibson 6-0, 7-5; Rochfort and Mutouch with movements as they happen and we feel as if and Mabel Mellor, 6-1, 6-4; Stewart we were all countrymen. We sympathize with them, jeer and Helen Crawford defeated Scarat them, sorrow with them and rejoice when they rejoice. lett and Mrs. Morrice, 6-3, 6-2; Mr. Who says the newspapers are not an agency for advance- and Mrs. Davidson defeated Russment.

WILL BE BIG RACE

All the world will watch through the eyes of the news- c papers the great yacht race in United States waters be- Sons of Canada tween Ireland's greatest yachtsman and tea grower, Sir Thomas Lipton and a defender. It will be of particular interest because of the number of times this king of sportsmen has attempted to lift the cup and failed. This year under new conditions and with a new craft Lipton stands at least an even chance of winning and many Canadians look to see that cup go back to Britain in 1930.

Keen Interest Being Taken in Annual Championship Contests In Northern Town

STEWART, Aug. 29:-With the continuation of good weather, rapid progress is being made with the annual tournaments at the Stewart Tennis Club. Last week-end J. P. Scarlett and Mrs. L. S. Davidson won the handicap mixed doubles, defeating J. Morrice and Miss Muriel Crawford. This tournament was played on the American plan and afforded many games for the large

At present the annual mixed doubles open championship is in progress and though, only eight teams are entered yet, they are all strong ones and play to date has been very interesting. Coggan and riel Crawford defeated Langford wurm and Miss Omundsen, 6-2, 6-3. The semi-finals and finals will be played off next week-end.
