T. J. Shenton, inspector of mines left on the Prince George yesterday afternoon for a trip to Stewart on official duties.

Mrs. William Keith left on today's train for Montreal and New York in which cities she will visit before proceeding to her home in Belfast, Ireland. Since last fall Mrs. Keith has been visiting here the guest of Mrs. William Beveridge, Third Avenue West.

Postmaster J. R. Morison points out that, as far as may be possible, it is desirable that mail destined to go East on baggage car mail days—Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays—should be deposited in the Post Office instead of in the small pillar box at the railway platform where there has developed considerable congestion. Mr. Morison points out, in this regard, that the mail going out by baggage car does not close at the Post Office until 12 noon.

Capt. L. M. Hatfield, transferred from Sydney, Australia, to Halifax Nova Scotia, as marine superintendent of Canadian National Steamships, left here for the East on today's train after a brief visit in the city.
