PLAYING THE GAME

The Edmonton Girl Grads were in the city last night and they gave an educational demonstration for the benefit of Prince Rupert basketball players and spectators, It was a really wonderful exhibition of skill and was worth a great deal to watch.

When seen after the game, J. Percy Page, trainer and manager explained that the aim was to teach the girls to hospital building although the be ladies first and sportswomen afterwards. No rough or to be met within the next few years. illegal play was tolerated. No girl could play on the team unless she played a clean game throughout. They had to be fast and sure but above everything they must not be rough or do anything contrary to the rules.

Prince Rupert boys could take many lessons from the exhibition given last night and doubtless they will do so.

THE BOND SALE

It was announced yesterday that British Columbia had lous to know why that neighbors in sold some bonds at a particular good rate. This was very satisfactory and we congratulate Finance Minisster Shelly on the fact, but it has been pointed out that according to eastern financial papers the City of Toronto got an even better price for its bonds.

Just now there is a great demand for bonds, the trend of cars and revelry of men and wobeing to swing in the opposite direction from the speculative era from which we have just emerged. Possibly even til the wee hours of the morn, now better prices may yet be obtained for municipal and other securities before the people again turn to stocks.

EYES OF THE WORLD

The eyes of the world, or at any rate of the British world is too low I will have it raised. are turned on Hamilton today where sportsmen from different parts of the Empire are testing their skill against each other. Canadian newspapers are giving the event great publicity as being the first time these games have been held in Canada and the second of the series.

Another year Canadian athletes will have to visit some other part of the British Empire in order to compete.

CONGRATULATIONS TO STEWART

We take great pleasure in congratulating Stewart on Dear friends of Prince Rupert, havits securing the prizes at the Vancouver Exhibition. This is not the first time they have made good records and it probably will not be the last. Stewart has the mineral and ses, 719 Fulton St. or City Jail. But it gooms to have the money who will be a sent the last. it seems to have the men who will keep the place in the a gentleman in. public eye. That helps a lot toward success. It is useless to I thank you. sit back and hope for the best. In these days of advertising it is the city or community that pushes itself to the fore that makes good.

Board Considers Necessity For New Accommodation But Thinks Time Inopportune

Additional hospital accommodation in Prince Rupert was again under discussion at last night's monthly meeting of the hospital board. The opinion was expressed that it would soon be necessary either to build a new wing in connection with the existing building or to start new hospital construction on the Overlook Street property which was purchased by the board last year. The discussion by the board was merely of an informal nature, the whole matter of additional hospital accommodation being now under review by the executive committee.

Frank Dibb, who brought up the question, expressed the opinion that, under present conditions, it would be impossible to proceed with a new hospital building. The need for additional hospital accommodation was, however, becoming increasingly apparent and it might be wise for the board to keep the matter in view.

The only solution Ald. Brown could see was to build a new permanent wing to the present building and eventually tear the present structure down and replace it with a permanent building. If conditions improved in the city, he had no doubt that bonds for a new hospital building could be floated.

Any new hospital, Robert Gordon thought, should be of at least 100 beds capacity. On the basis of $3000 per bed, the cost of such a hospital would be $300,000. He suggested for the meantime the construction of Thursday, August 21, 1930 a maternity wing in connection with the existing hospital. This might be used later for other purposes. The cost of such a permanent building might be around $30,000 or

After further discussion of a desultory nature, the matter was dropped, the feeling being that it was now a very inopportune time to proceed with any plans for a new problem was one which would have

Editor, Daily News:-

I, Vic Rodgers of the Tamale Parlor, 719 Fulton St., am very curthat vicinity are unable to sleep since I moved down there. I further wish to state this property has been known as a rooming house until it had to have a new foundation. In a district where the honk men start at 11 p.m. and lasts unjustice asks why should one individual be all to blame for all the noise and loud talk that may be heard at an early hour? If these complaints are the cause from color, I will white wash. If my face

Ah, dear brother or sister, as God knows, us are all trying to live and if you work in the day and I work at night, we can't sleep at the same time. So far as in my premises is concerned I will try to keep it as quiet as any down town place but don't force me to run an American speak-easy, as these customers won't whisper when they are eating that hot stuff we give them. ing bought this property recently, I will in future have but two addres-

Twenty Years Ago In Prince Rupert

August 21, 1910

Over one thousand citizens gathered this afternoon in front of the provincial government buildings to hear an open air address by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada. Mayor Stork presided and other speakers included Hon. William Templeman, E. M. MacDonald M. P. and Hon. George P. Graham. School children, under direction of Prof. Paul Kauffmann, sang "The Maple Leaf" and "God Save the King."
