Benny Wendle Wins Over Henry Deeth With Good Point Margin; Two Knockouts Last Evening

In the main event of the boxing card last night in the Exhibition Building before a good sized crowd, Benny Wendle, local boy, won a six-round decision over Henry Deeth of Anyox. It was a fast fight from the opening bell, both boys mixing well. Deeth was very agressive and displayed a world of gameness under Wendle's slashing at- tors another win. tack in the latter rounds. He won a host of admirers by his showing against the Prince Rupert boy and will, no doubt, be a good drawing card, should he appear here again. Wendle won all but one round.
