Where World's Championship Was Won of state office

THE centre of gravity in the hockey world shifted to Montreal with I the brilliant record of "Les Canadiens "who, by their epic performance at the closing games of this season recaptured the Stanley Cup for Canada.

The large picture shows the crowded Forum at Montreal, now the hockey centre of the world, and incidentally the most modern of the Canadian arenas.

The odd looking cluster of horns in the centre of the roof is the Northern Electric Public Address System, a feature of the highly perfected organization necessary to deal with immense crowds.

Sport Chat

An interesting card of bouts has been ararnged for the Elks' smoker which will be held this Thursday night with an engagement between Dido Gurvich and Herman Loblick, the latter better known as a baseball hurler than a boxer, heading the list. Special interest will also attach itself to the semi-final in which Nina Gurvich will realize an ambition he has cherished for some time of meeting the husky Benny Wendle. The deuce-spot will b between Eddie Smith and Frankle Neil while Young "Tod" Morgan will meet Newsy Hardy in the curtain raiser. There will also be blindfolded and barrel bouts.

Miss Betty Nuthall, the 18-yearold British lawn tennis star, will be absent from several tournaments this spring, as she is taking courses
